Russian-Romanian Armies Chop Holes In Nazi Defences

Penetrate Oradea in Massive Three-Way Drive to Knock Hungary Out of the War

LONDON, Sept. 29 (AP).—Russian and Romanian armies chopped holes in Axis lines along the Czech-Polish border and in Northern Transylvania today, and also penetrated into the strategic rail city of Oradea in their massive three-way drive aimed at knocking Hungary out of the war.

Bucharest and German announcements told of the fight which has spilled onto Hungarian soil at points along a 100-mile front, while a special Moscow announcement said Marshal Leonid A. Govorov's Leningrad Army—which has freed all the Estonian mainland and now is pressing heavily on Riga, Latvian capital—had killed 30,000 Germans and captured 15,745 between September 17 and 26.

Radio France at Algiers said new demonstrations broke out in Budapest, Hungarian capital, after it became known that the Russians had reached prewar Hungary.

Berlin implied that the Red Army temporarily had smashed into Szeged, Hungary's second city, as well as other key towns, when it said Szeged, Gyula and Oradea were again in Hungarian hands.

The Germans acknowledged retreats in Transylvania, far to the east, and said a general army regrouping was going on throughout the Balkans, presumably with the idea of diverting more troops to Hungary in an effort to keep that weakening satellite in the war on the Axis side.

Targu-Mures, important Transylvanian city 48 miles southeast of Cluj, Hungarian-annexed capital, fell to the Russians who surged across the Mures River, Moscow's communique said. Fifty other localities were seized in the pursuit of the Germans who said they were leaving Hungarian rearguards behind them.

The withdrawing Nazi legions were in danger of being cut off at

Bombers Hit Enemy Line

Canadians Have Big Day in Rhine Sector

LONDON, Sept. 29 (CP).—Flying through rain and low clouds which grounded heavy bombers, hundreds of R.A.F. and American medium bombers attacked the Siegfried Line and enemy road and rail channels today in the fifth day of a non-stop aerial offensive.

R.A.F. Mitchells and Bostons in a long-distance assault poured hundreds of tons of bombs into the German frontier town of Oeldern, through which both troops and supplies have been funneled by the enemy into the growing battle of Holland.

United States 8th Air Force marauders blasted the dragon tooth defences of the Siegfried Line to the south near Wehenhein, 20 miles east of Saarbrucken, and attacked the freight yards at Saarbrucken.

The day's bombing was done mainly through openings in the clouds. No enemy planes were encountered. No bombers were lost.

Canadian fighter pilots, continuing their week-long offensive against German aircraft over the British Second Army's Rhine salient, shot down at least 31 enemy planes today after some of their fiercest sky battles since 1940.

A wing led by Wing Cmdr. W. R. MacBrien, of Ottawa, led the way with 18 aircraft destroyed and five damaged.

Airmen in the wing commanded by Wing Cmdr. Dal Russel, D.F.C., of Westmount, Que., shot down 11 and damaged six to bring their five-day total to 50 destroyed and 24 damaged.

Another pair was credited to a Canadian Tempest pilot, giving Canadian flyers a minimum of 80 confirmed kills since the beginning of the week.

R.C.A.F. sources had no word to confirm a Reuters News Agency field dispatch that men under command of Wing Cmdr. J. E. (Johnny) Johnson, English-born fighter pilot who heads a Canadian fighter wing, had downed nine planes.

The wings commanded by MacBrien and Russel are based in Belgium.

THE TIMES London

[illegible] in International [illegible] selected from The Times [illegible] published in The [illegible] arrangement [illegible] The Vancouver Daily [illegible]

Copyright 1944 by Southam Co. Ltd.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The immense achievement in building up an army of between two and three million men on the continent, says The Times in a survey of the war situation, shows what wonderful advances have been made since the landing in Normandy.

The battle for the Rhine which is now approaching, may be the last pitched battle the Wehrmacht can hope to fight.

While the composition of the invading armies will gradually reflect the growing preponderance of United States manpower, at present it is ground for legitimate pride that over the whole field of the European war Britain has as many divisions facing the enemy as the United States itself. Casualties have been shared in almost exact proportion to the numbers engaged in fighting.

Alluding to Premier Churchill's reference to the probable end of the war, The Times military correspondent says the Nazis are undoubtedly preparing for a guerrilla campaign inside Germany. Consequently after the German army has been broken it will be for the Allies to declare a formal conclusion to hostilities and then mop up war criminals and bandits who will have taken up refuge in the forests and mountains.

In all probability the war against Germany will not end in an armistice as modern wars have done but only through conquest and occupation of the whole country.

The Nazis are said to have plans ready for the withdrawal of some forces to the mountains of Bavaria and Austria and to have created secret underground organizations to obstruct the Allies and terrorize the German people who may assist the Allied administration.

The citadel at Calais where [illegible] troops made a last gallant stand at the time of the Dunkerque evacuation, has been captured and the fall of the town is imminent. The Germans are still in possession of the port, and the Canadians are encountering a great many booby traps. They have taken 1,000 more prisoners. On the Nijmegen front, reports from the Canadian First Army indicate the Ger-

General Bor to Command Poles

LONDON, Sept. 29 (CP).—President Wladyslaw Raczkiewicz, President of the Polish Government in London, will issue a decree tomorrow naming Gen. Tadeusz (Bor) Komorowski commander-in-chief of the Polish armed forces, it was reported in informed Polish circles tonight.

As Gen. Bor, the prospective commander-in-chief of the armies responsible to the Government here has been directing the patriot uprising in Warsaw.

The agreement of President Raczkiewicz to the dismissal of Gen. Kazimierz Sosnkowski represented a victory for Premier Stanislaw Mikolajczyk, strengthening his hand for further negotiations on a rapprochement with the Soviet Government.

Sosnkowski long has been a target for Soviet criticism and his dismissal was demanded by the Russians as a condition for collaboration with the London Polish Government.

The London Polish chief of staff, Gen. Stanislaw Kopanski, who fought at Tobruk, will serve for Gen. Bor-Komorowski until he can take over command, informants said.

Beachheads Made Secure on Islands

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29 (AP).—Newly-established beachheads on Konsarau Island and an unnamed island near it in the Palau group have been made secure, the United States Navy announced tonight, but Japanese troops cornered in caves on Umorbrogol Hill on Peleliu Island are still offering bitter resistance.

The American assault on Peleliu so far had accounted for 8,717 Japanese dead and the attack on nearby Angaur Island has cost the Japanese 1,055 soldiers. Only 150 enemy prisoners have been taken.

Truce at Calais Permits Evacuation of Civilians

Allied Officer Goes With Nazi Chief of Staff Into City to Persuade People to Leave

WITH THE CANADIAN FIRST ARMY AT CALAIS, Sept. 29 (CP).—The battle for Calais, one of the two remaining French north coast ports still in German hands, was suspended by agreement tonight to permit evacuation of civilians, but 12 miles to the southwest Cap Gris Nez and its powerful fortifications fell into Canadian hands.

A 24-hour armistice in the Calais fighting, starting at noon today and ending at noon tomorrow, was arranged at a conference this morning in the Canadian area between the chief of staff of the German garrison and a Canadian commander.

With the capture of the Cap Gris Nez positions and their cross-Channel guns, the only French territory in the Canadian First Army sector still in enemy hands is at Calais and at Dunkerque, 25 miles east.

The request for a conference between German and Canadian representatives at Calais was made by the Germans Thursday night and it was arranged for 10 a.m. today.

The evacuation was timed to start at 2 p.m. Because the German representative said the garrison would have difficulty in persuading French residents of Calais to leave their homes, an Allied civil affairs officer returned with him into the city to advise the mayor of Calais to urge the people to leave.

The Germans contended there were some 20,000 civilians still left in Calais although few were found in Boulogne when it fell to the Canadians two weeks ago, and there are believed to be only a couple of hundred in Dunkerque.

There were few other changes on

17 Japanese Vessels Sunk

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, New Guinea, Sept. 30 (Saturday) (AP).—A headquarters communique, today reported widespread Southwest Pacific air activity in which 17 small Japanese ships and barges were either sunk or damaged.

The communique covering raids made in mid-week, listed these achievements:

Off the Southern Philippines—six surface craft, including two small freighters, two coastal vessels and two barges sunk or damaged by night air patrols.

Off Celebes—seven, including a small freighter, two barges and four small craft "destroyed or crippled."

Off Borneo—a small freighter damaged in Makassar Strait.

Off Ternate in the Halmahera group—a barge loaded with Japanese destroyed.

Off Boeroe in the Banda Sea—two coastal vessels destroyed or damaged and a parked bomber set afire.

The Japanese sent six bombers in a night raid against the Philippines invasion base the Allies are building at Morotai in the Halmaheras, 300 miles south of Mindanao, but the communique said the raiders dropped bombs harmlessly.

Received by Pope on Mission From Allies

LONDON, Sept. 29 (CP).—Rodrigue Cardinal Villeneuve, Archbishop of Quebec, carried out a mission entrusted to him by President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill when he was received today by Pope Pius XII, the Rome radio said tonight.

The Canadian Cardinal's audience with the Pope lasted one hour. Mr. Churchill and Mrs. Roosevelt were meeting at Quebec when Cardinal Villeneuve departed for the Vatican.

Plan to Develop Six Ontario Power Sites

OTTAWA, Sept. 29 (CP).—Premier George Drew of Ontario today announced that negotiations would be started immediately with the Quebec Government for development of six power sites on the Ottawa River between Des Joachims and Carillon in Quebec.

He said the newly-created power would transform Eastern Ontario into "one of the greatest industrial sections of Canada." Construction on the projects would start at the beginning of demobilization of the armed forces.

1944 Wheat Crop Is Set At 447,700,000 Bushels

OTTAWA, Sept. 29 (CP).—The first official estimate of Canada's 1944 wheat crops is placed at 447,700,000 bushels compared with 293,700,000 bushels in 1943, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported today.

This new crop when combined with an estimated carry-over at July 31 of 355,200,000 bushels of old wheat, gives a total available supply of 802,900,000 bushels, said the bureau. While this is less than the total available supply in either 1942-43 or 1943-44, it is sufficient to meet domestic requirements, provide for all prospective export demands and still leave a substantial carry-over.

Nevertheless, when the Canadian wheat supply is considered in addition to that of the United States, the North American supply position is seen to be "exceptionally favorable." By harvesting a record wheat crop of 1,132,000,000 bushels the United States was able to maintain its wheat stockpile at a level only 11,000,000 bushels below the preceding crop year although its carry-over of old wheat was halved.

Present indications are that for domestic disappearance of wheat in the United States during the present crop year may be less than in 1943-44. The Bureau of Agricultural Economics foresees slightly larger

Hockey Players May Have to Unload Grain

PORT ARTHUR, Sept. 29 (CP).—St. Louis Flyers, American Hockey League team training here, are faced with the alternative of leaving the city or losing some of their players for employment at Lakehead grain elevators, it was learned tonight.

Earlier today it was reported from Fort William that Grain Controller A. A. Heaps' National Selective Service had called about 30 of the team's players from practice at the Port Arthur Arena and appealed to them to take work in elevators.

For some weeks there has been a labor shortage in Lakehead elevators, with about 20,000 freight cars at present waiting to be unloaded.

Tenement Hit By Flying Bomb

LONDON, Sept. 30 (Saturday) (CP).—A flying bomb crashed atop a tenement house in a residential district of Southern England early today, killing at least three persons and injuring a dozen others.

Argentina Is Again Warned

Roosevelt Backs Up Churchill's Statement

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29 (AP).—President Roosevelt served notice on Argentina today that if the "growth of Nazi-Fascist influence" there continues to impede the United Nations' programme, that South American nation will have to pay for it in the future.

At the same time, in a formal statement, he struck sharply at what he called the "vicious rumor, circulated in part by the Nazis and in part by irresponsible persons, that our councils are divided on the course of our policy toward Argentina."

He adopted in full this statement by Prime Minister Churchill in an August 2 speech to the House of Commons:

"This is not like some small wars in the past where all could be forgotten and forgiven. Nations must be judged by the part they play. Not only belligerents but neutrals will find that their position in the world cannot remain entirely unaffected by the part they have chosen to play in the crisis of the war."

The President's statement asserted that the Argentine Government has repudiated solemn inter-American obligations providing for a common front against Axis aggression, and added:

"Unless we now demonstrate a capacity to develop a tradition of respect for such obligations among civilized nations, there can be little hope for a system of international security theoretically created to maintain principles for which free people are today sacrificing to the limit of their resources both human and material."

Ontario's Liquor Ration Going Up?

TORONTO, Sept. 30 (Saturday) (CP).—The Globe and Mail said today that the Ontario Liquor Control Board will announce Monday in the form of a paid advertisement the doubling of the monthly liquor ration from 13 ounces to 26 ounces.

The boost will go into effect the same day and will continue until at least the beginning of 1945. By that time it is reported there is a definite view that the King Government will be ready to remove the shackles on alcohol for beverage consumption.

The 13-ounce quota has been in effect since last June.

BORDER CLASH

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica, Sept. 29 (AP).—Costa Rica and Nicaragua were reported today to be sending troops to the border area between the two countries in the wake of a border clash last night between a Costa Rican border patrol and armed Nicaraguan exiles attempting to invade their homeland from Costa Rica.

Allied Army Within 11 Miles Of Belfort in Drive to Storm Southern Gate to Germany

Netherlands Corridor Widened—Canadians Take Cap Gris Nez—Truce Granted at Calais

LONDON, Sept. 29 (AP).—The United States-French Seventh Army drove five miles across fields strewn with enemy dead to within 11 miles of strategic Belfort, and fought up sodden slopes toward four passes through the Vosages Mountains today in a concerted campaign to storm the southern gates to Germany.

Northward along the seething 460-mile western front, the United States Third Army hammered out a five-mile gain after destroying 82 German tanks east of Nancy, the British Second was widening its Netherlands corridor, and the United States First was making two new menacing moves at the enemy frontier.

Canadian infantry and armor stormed and captured the German guns and fortifications at Cap Gris Nez, among the strongest positions along the French coast which were still in German hands.

Meanwhile, a 24-hour truce was arranged at Calais while civilians were evacuated from the besieged port, whose outskirts the Canadians have reached on three sides. The armistice which ends at noon Saturday was granted at the request of the German garrison commander.

The Berlin radio said "the focal point of fighting on the western front now is clearly on the southern wing," and a commentator for the agency, D.N.B., said the Third Army has gone over to the attack, pressing back the Germans in some sectors.

The British Second Army at the northern extremity of the front swung east to the Maas on a 20-mile front near the Siegfried Line terminal of Kleve and warded off three successive blows by enemy troops surging from German frontier positions against the Nijmegen corridor.

UP TO BORDER AT TWO POINTS

The United States First Army drove up to the German border at two new widely separated points—20 miles north of Aachen and far to the south near Trier.

Pilots from the hundreds of fighters and fighter-bombers raking enemy lines reported that German guns and reinforcements were MEXICO CITY, Sept. 29 (AP).—The Brazilian Embassy confirmed today reports from Rio de Janeiro that former King Carol of Romania, Madame Lupescu, Ernest Urdareanu, formerly the Royal chamberlain, and Mrs. Urdareanu were going from here to Brazil. All four had obtained passport visas to Brazil, the embassy said.

Repel Nazi Assault on Italian Line

Allied Advance Held Up by Rain and Mud

ROME, Sept. 29 (AP).—Rain and mud, defensive aids of Field Marshal Gen. Kesselring in the past year of fighting from one mountain line to another in Italy, have now helped to slow the advance of the Allied Eighth and Fifth Armies into the Po Valley.

"The weather, however, is not the only reason that Allied forces are almost at a standstill. The Germans are fighting with a ferocity born of the realization that a single Allied break-through might bring disaster to their entire position in Northern Italy. They are counter-attacking violently whenever the opportunity offers.

The heaviest of yesterday's German counter-attacks hit British troops at the southwestern end of the 10 to 12-mile-long front which the Eighth Army has established on the Adriatic edge of the Po Valley roughly parallel to the Fiumicino River above Rimini.

Two strong enemy thrusts were repelled northwest of the village of Canonica, eight miles west of Rimini, but the British troops were driven from a 1,000-foot ridge southwest of Savignano. Canadians forced the Nazis out of San Mauro di Romagna, eight miles northwest of Rimini, and established a small bridgehead across the Fiumicino.

In the only specifically announced gains of consequence in the central sector yesterday, American troops pushed to the top of four more hills commanding stretches of mountain roads leading down the northern slopes of the Apennine Mountains into Bologna and Imola.

One of the captured heights, Mount Battaglia, is only 11 miles from Imola on the highway between Rimini and Bologna.

The other three, Mount Bastione, Mount Canda and Mount Il Pogio, are roughly 20 miles south of Bologna on the main highway north from Florence.

Diners Demand "God Save the King" at Finish of Banquet

OTTAWA, Sept. 30 (CP).—An Eastern Ontario Progressive Conservative Association banquet meeting tonight declined an invitation from the chairman to close with the singing of "O Canada" and instead sang "God Save the King."

The assembly of about 800 persons first sang "God Save the King" before hearing addresses by several speakers including Premier George Drew of Ontario.

When the meeting ended, J. Warren York, the chairman said it would close with the singing of "O Canada."

"No, the King, the King," several members of the audience cried.

They then began singing "God Save the King" and Mr. York joined with them.

"We Never Lost Hope," Says Survivor of Arnhem Ordeal

By ROGER D. GREENE
Associated Press War Correspondent

WITH THE BRITISH SECOND ARMY, Sept. 29 (AP).—"We never lost hope."

With these four words the valiant men of Arnhem epitomized the story of a nightmare ordeal across the Rhine where they were cut off for nine days and nights under fire of German tanks, artillery, mortars and machine-guns.

"The Germans wouldn't come out and fight," said Capt. David Allsop of Bakewell, Derbyshire, a member of the British 1st Airborne Reconnaissance Squadron, who landed with the first gliders at 10:30 a.m. on September 17, six miles west of Arnhem.

"Our troops shouted 'Come out and fight.'

"But the Germans didn't answer. They just kept slinging mortars at us until it fell like rain."

Allsop's men lay in slit trenches bombarded by day and night. They were unable to bury the dead.

"We glided down into a potato field, and it was just like an exercise back in England except for a few odd bits of flak," said Allsop.

"But two hours later the fun began when we made our first contact with Germans on reconnaissance patrol at Wolfheeze station. From there on it got rougher and rougher.

"The second day we tried to get into Arnhem. We, in jeeps, ran into heavy machine-gun fire and had to turn back, but our infantry got into town. On the third day we acted as a screening force on the west flank and on the fifth day it really got sticky. The Germans shelled and mortared us without

More Tires After Nazis Are Beaten

SARNIA, Ont., Sept. 29 (CP).—Tire rationing restrictions will be gradually relaxed starting within a few months of the collapse of Germany, Munitions Minister Howe said here today.

Mr. Howe made the announcement in a statement to newspapermen attending a ceremony celebrating the first anniversary of synthetic rubber production in Canada at the Government-owned plant near here. In his address during the ceremony, he said he favored retaining the $51,000,000 plant under Government ownership and predicted a bright future for it in the manufacture of chemicals and plastics.

While he gave Canadian motorists hope of tires in the future, Mr. Howe said the present situation remained acute.

"This year 885,000 passenger tires will be replaced as against 540,000 last year, but even the increased number will not be sufficient to fill essential demands.

"To release the 885,000 tires our inventories will become so reduced that some essential drivers granted tire ration permits may find it difficult to purchase immediately the required size in their district."

As soon as Germany has been defeated, steps will be taken to increase the output of civilian tires and within a few months of that time civilian tires will begin to be more plentiful and it will gradually become possible to relax tire restrictions, he said.

On Approaches to Yugoslav Capital

LONDON, Sept. 29 (AP).—Marshal Tito's Partisans, battling mixed forces of Germans, Yugoslav puppet troops and Gen. Draja Mihailovic's Chetniks, are "standing on the approaches to Belgrade," Yugoslav capital, a Free Yugoslav broadcast said tonight.

The Tito communique declared that Mihailovic himself was among Chetniks routed in a two-day battle at Lazoica, 55 miles southwest of Belgrade, and the Partisans captured Lasnica and inflicted 700 casualties.

Koceljevo, on the Tamnava River only 40 miles southwest of the capital, also was entered. "Many enemy forces fled without waiting for our units," the bulletin said, and later broadcasts said Belgrade factory workers were doing Partisan work inside the city.

LONDON, Sept. 29 (CP).—Berlin radio reported today that much-decorated Maj. Horst Ademeit, credited with 166 air victories, had failed to return from an operational flight.

Postwar World Glimpse Given

The world of tomorrow is being forged in the fires of today according to Dr. Norman MacKenzie, president of the University of British Columbia, whose address last night at the Empress Hotel concluded the annual convention of the British Columbia Medical Association.

The new world had been in the making for the past five years, he added, and events of yesterday and today would determine what type of a future the world was to have.

Dr. MacKenzie presented a brief outline of world history since 1918, emphasizing attempts that had been made after the first Great War for a world peace which would be lasting. The League of Nations adopted many fine ideals towards that end, the speaker said, but very little of the peace text had been put into effect, especially as far as the prevention of further wars was concerned.

There were several reasons for the failure of the League of Nations, Dr. MacKenzie continued, including the depression of the '30s and the general feeling in many quarters that lasting peace was an impossibility. There was a definite psychological aspect to it all. In 1931, Japan, which with the United States, had come out of the last war stronger than she had ever been, started aggressive action in Manchuria. Japan must have done this to test the strength of the League of Nations principles. No other country interfered, and the same story applied to the growth of the Mussolini regime, and the Spanish Civil

Arnhem Commander Arrives in England

AN R.A.F. BASE IN ENGLAND, Sept. 29 (AP).—Maj.-Gen. R. E. Urquhart, commander of the British 1st Airborne Division, and six glider pilots who fought with him in the Arnhem pocket were flown back here today in a plane piloted by Maj.-Gen. Paul L. Williams of Los Angeles and Detroit, commander of the troop carrier forces of the Allied Airborne Army.

Visibly exhausted, Urquhart emerged from the plane and was greeted by high officers of the First Allied Airborne Army and by Maj.-Gen. K. N. Crawford of the British War Office who commended him on the valiant stand made by his men at Arnhem.

Urquhart had no comment on the story contained in an announcement last night by the British War Office that he had been captured by the Germans but later escaped.

LONDON, Sept. 30 (Saturday) (AP).—The Rome radio said today Mayor Fiorello La Guardia of New York City will arrive in Rome "shortly" to become administrator of liberated Italy. The broadcast did not give the source of its information.

Empire Airways Experts May Meet Before U.S. Conference

OTTAWA, Sept 29 (CP).—Preliminary to the International Civil Aviation Conference which has been called to meet in the United States November 1 it is probable there will be Empire conversations on the [illegible] learned today.

While negotiations have not been completed there has been correspondence with a view to having the delegations from various parts of the British Commonwealth going to Washington stop off in Ottawa for exchanges of view A statement on the matter is expected soon.

The Ottawa meeting, it is expected may take up some specific inter-Empire problems such as the proposal for a trans-Pacific air service operated jointly by Canada, Australia and New Zealand which has been mooted for some time

A dispatch from Canberra indicated such a service might be started soon under air force auspices, but so far the R.C.A.F. has not been asked to participate in such a service although it operates a trans-Atlantic air service for the carriage of mail to members of the Canadian forces overseas.

Generally speaking, the Governments of the Commonwealth are prepared to go further with international control of civil aviation than is the United States

The British Government, while it has never officially stated its position, at one stage was known to favor complete international ownership and control of air services among countries

Australia and New Zealand in the Canberra agreement declared themselves in favor of complete internationalization and failing that of a publicly-owned air service linking the different parts of the British Commonwealth early this year submitted a specific plan for international control, but not ownership or operation of air services to the different governments

It is the only comprehensive specific proposal yet made public, but it is not clear yet as to whether it will provide a serious base for discussions at the international conference [illegible] ternational authority to allocate routes as between nations, to regulate standards of safety and service, to licence operators and, in certain cases, to take over and operate services.

The Canadian plan met with the approval of the British Government which subsequently discussed it with American Government representatives at one of several bilateral aviation meetings in London.

Following that meeting Lord Beaverbrook, who represented the British Government in the talks with Edward Stettinius, representing the United States, said the British had sought to get the Canadian proposals accepted as a basis of discussion for the international conference but had been reluctantly forced to abandon them and accept a less concrete base for discussion.

WOULD CONSIDER NATIONAL NEEDS

WASHINGTON, Sept 29 (AP)—The State Department suggested today that the forthcoming conference on international civil aviation give first attention to meeting immediate needs for air transport among nations during the transitional period from war to peace, and then lay the foundation for permanent world aviation organizations

Fifty-five countries have been invited to the meeting, scheduled November 1 at an unspecified place in the United States Preparatory conferences were held in a bilateral basis between the United States and Great Britain, Canada, Russia and China.

First item on a proposed agenda for the November meeting is establishment of air carrier services on a provisional basis

The ultimate aim of the conference, the agenda indicated, will be the establishment of a multilateral aviation convention and international aeronautical body

Airborne Unit "Did Not Fail"

ALLIED SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Sept 29 (AP)—Field Marshal Montgomery declared tonight that the British First Airborne Division "did not fail and all is well elsewhere" in praising its gallantry in the Battle of Arnhem

"There can be few episodes more glorious than the epic of Arnhem," he said in a message to the commander, Maj.-Gen. R E. Urquhart, who was captured, but escaped the Germans north of the Neder Rhine in Holland

The marshal disclosed the final message from the division, which lost 6,000 of its 8,000 effectives in nine days and nights of battle for the last major water barrier in Holland:

"All will be ordered to break out rather than surrender." Urquhart had radioed "We have attempted our best and we will continue to do our best as long as possible."

Hitler's Super Blast Weapon

SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE, Sept. 23 (Delayed) (AP). — United States Third Army troops have obtained information indicating that a 14-ton projectile with an explosive radius of three kilometres—almost two miles—is scheduled as the third in [illegible] [illegible] is the robot bomb launched from a platform

V-2 is the long-range rocket fired from a carrier plane, for which the Germans are reported using the Heinkel III

V-3, so far as is known here, has not yet been used against either Britain or the attacking Allied armies.

This dispatch, written last Saturday and only today cleared through Allied censorship, did not expand upon the "explosive radius" of V-3. However, the implication was that its power to wreck or damage buildings extended almost two miles from the point of impact.

Plane Crashes in Vancouver Area

VANCOUVER, Sept 29 (CP)—A Royal Canadian Air Force fighter plane crashed and exploded today on a sand-pit garden in the Fraser River adjacent to the Kerrisdale district of Southwestern Vancouver The plane was destroyed The lone occupant of the plane, the pilot, is missing

R.C.A.F. officials declined to divulge whether the plane was carrying bombs The plane dug a furrow 30 feet long and five feet wide and buried itself eight feet in the sand. Flames shot 75 feet into the air and burning wreckage flew 50 feet in every direction

Scores of residents of Kerrisdale district, many of them on their way to work, saw the plane plunge out of the sky and plough into the ground within ten feet of the home of E R M Griffith-Cochrane, but no civilians were close enough to be injured

The R.C.A.F. launched a search for the pilot, sending crash boats onto the Fraser River aircraft over the area and ground crews through the bush and marshlands.

Salvage workers dug 12 feet into the sand without finding any trace of the body.

Flt. Lt. J D Mitchner, D.F.C. Saskatoon, set the pace for MacBrien's wing, destroying seven German planes and damaging one without loss. After this battle near Nijmegen, City of Oshawa pilots continued to patrol the Netherlands battle line for 45 minutes before touching down

Mitchner raised his personal score to nine with a pair of victories over F.W.-190s.

Flt. Lt. Gordon Ockenden, of Edmonton, Flt. Lt. Gordon Smith, of Nelson B.C., and F.O. R A Hodgins, of Ottawa, each scored double victories as MacBrien's wing smashed up German formations of fighters over Nijmegen

Flt. Lt. Gordon Troke, D.F.C., of Wolfville, N.S., leading a MacBrien squadron, scored a double and damaged a third plane

Another D.F.C. holder, Flt. Lt. Red Smith, of Regina celebrated his second day as a squadron leader with a pair of victories for Russel's wing This was Smith's third twin killing in four days and brought his total score to 13

Doubles also were scored by Flt. Lt. H J Everard, D.F.C., of Timmins, Ont., and by P.O. Doug Husband, of Toronto and F.O. H C Hughes, of Dauphin, Man.

Wheat Crop

quantities of wheat being used for food, seed and alcohol, but a sharply reduced use of wheat for feed With a corn crop of 3,100,000,000, together with reduced numbers of hogs and poultry on farms wheat used for feed may drop to 250,000,000 bushels or about half of the quantity used for feed during the last crop year.

LIKELY TO CURTAIL PURCHASES

A sharp reduction in the quantity of wheat used for feed in the United States will likely curtail purchases made by the Commodity Credit Corporation for this purpose in Canada Although detailed figures are not yet available it appears that some 150,000,000 to 160,000,000 bushels of Canada's total exports of about 344,000,000 bushels went to the United States Although the volume of purchases which will be made by U.N.R.R.A. and liberated Europeans during the coming crop year is not known, Canada is in a position to export some 400,000,000 bushels of wheat and still retain a carry-over of about 200,000,000 bushels on July 31, 1945

Argentina's stocks of grain are comparatively high and the republic still has about 146,000,000 bushels available for export and carry-over Offsetting the rather heavy storage position is the current unfavorable condition of the present wheat crop, which is on a reduced acreage

Australia's position is similar in some respects to that of Argentina On September 21 the wheat pile totaled 122,000,000 bushels, but the planted acreage is down to 8,200,000 acres as compared with a prewar average of 13,000,000 acres This year's crop, estimated at 88,000,000 bushels, is 4,000,000 bushels below domestic requirements and the smallest in 25 years

The rapid gains which the Allied armies have made in Western and Southeastern Europe have prevented wholesale destruction of food crops by the Germans Large areas of France are reported practically untouched and yielding a fairly good crop of grain Wheat over and above local requirements from these areas is expected to move into deficit regions including, possibly, parts of Belgium and Holland The timely Russian advance into Romania and Bulgaria will permit shipment of any wheat surpluses to Russia rather than to Germany

Nazi Staff Knows War Lost; Prepare for Next

LONDON, Sept 29 (CP)—A clearer picture of what to expect from a beaten Germany is slowly emerging here, and the British Government has given credence to two of the most widely-circulated rumors in neutral capitals.

1 That the German general staff realizes Germany has lost this war and is preparing for a third Great War.

2. That Hitler and his Nazis are serious in their threats never to surrender and are ready to wage guerrilla warfare even after the German army is broken.

In a remark full of implications, Prime Minister Churchill yesterday revealed that there may never be a formal surrender from any representative group within Germany even after the country has been conquered and occupied

For months reports have reached this capital of how the Nazis are laying away stores to fight in the hills even after the Wehrmacht has been smashed.

Mr. Churchill's revelations came only a day after Lord Cranborne, Government spokesman in the House of Lords, flatly declared that there was reason to believe that the German general staff, envisaging defeat, had started making preparations for the next war

He did not elaborate nor did he suggest that the war-minded Junkers were working with the Nazis in planning for the next war

He did say, however, that the Allies should make it "utterly impossible" for Germany ever to stage another war, and asserted that this meant that "we should use whatever means are necessary to make certain of this."

This suggested that Britain was ready to back some deindustrialization of Germany, or at least insist on complete Allied control of heavy industries, but Lord Cranborne avoided making any comment on Treasury Secretary Morgenthau's proposal that the country be completely deindustrialized.

REPORT HIMMLER LEADS MOVEMENT

LONDON, Sept 29 (CP)—Foreign Secretary Eden told the House of Commons today that "nearly completed" arrangements for occupying Germany were taking into account reports that Heinrich Himmler was training fanatical young Nazis for post-occupation resistance.

"What we mean by unconditional surrender," the Foreign Secretary declared, "is that we are not prepared to make a negotiated peace with Germany, and the reasons are based on the experience of history and on the interpretation which Germany placed on the 14 points after the last war.

"We cannot take these risks again. We have information that the German general staff, recognizing the inevitability of defeat, are already thinking in terms of the next war.

Mr. Eden said the "overriding importance" of the Russo-Polish problem was that there could be no guarantee of a lasting peace unless the three big powers could work together in enduring harmony

"Let no one think," he said, "that with the defeat of Germany the issue is at an end. The problem of Germany will be a continuing problem The principal danger to Europe after the defeat of Germany will be the re-emergency of a militant Germany and that will be a continuing danger."

War Leaders May Meet in December

LONDON, Sept 29 (CP-Reuters)—The meeting between Prime Minister Churchill, President Roosevelt and Marshal Stalin is planned to take place sometime in December and may be at Turin Wilson Broadbent Daily Mail diplomatic correspondent, said today

Alternative places are, however, under consideration though final arrangements cannot be made until after the presidential election, he said

Both Mr Churchill and Mr Roosevelt had hoped to have a meeting with Marshal Stalin this month, the writer said, and two places other than Quebec were proposed to the Russian leader

MUCH INTEREST BY RUSSIANS

MOSCOW Sept 29 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill's call for a second meeting with Marshal Stalin and President Roosevelt caused much interest here today

The opinion was expressed that great benefits would result from a sequel to the Teheran Conference The first meeting in Persia perfected plans for the invasion of Normandy, which Russians view as the Allies' greatest contribution to the war It led to the best understanding in the history of Anglo-American-U.S.S.R. relations

Russians say a second meeting might accomplish decisions on how to administer the last blows to Hitler; co-ordination of the three high commands, groundwork for the peace, an exchange of ideas on how the enemy is to be dealt with after the war and how he is to be punished, where, and by whom, and what is going to be done to Germany

There is no intimation here as to when and where such a meeting would take place.

This much is reported on good authority Marshal Stalin will be just as eager as Mr Churchill or Mr Roosevelt to see his friends again.

Death Penalty For Torturers

Four Men Sentenced At Fort Frances

FORT FRANCES, Ont., Sept. 29 (CP)—George and Anthony Skrypnik, [illegible] Tillonen tonight were sentenced to be hanged December 8 for the hot-stove torture death of Mrs. Viola Jamieson in her Flanders, Ont., home last July 2.

The judgment disregarded the recommendation of a 12-man Ontario Supreme Court jury for mercy for Tillonen, 19-year-old Fort Arthur youth.

The jury brought in its guilty verdict after two hours and 54 minutes' deliberation, and sentence was pronounced almost immediately by Mr. Justice F H. Barlow, the trial judge.

The four men showed no emotion when the jury verdict was announced.

The jury had retired at 2.54 p.m., C.D.T., and returned only once for information—two hours and 25 minutes later. They asked if it was permissible to recommend mercy for all the accused or any one of them, to which the trial judge replied it was "quite proper" to do so

Mr Justice Barlow said he would pass the mercy recommendation on to the Justice Department.

Trial of the four men began here Tuesday.

In his address to the jury, Mr Justice Barlow termed the torture "a shocking crime" and advised the jury that their verdict must be "guilty or not guilty."

When the jury went out one of the defence counsels, C R. Fitch, entered a motion the charge be reduced to manslaughter Mr Justice Barlow ruled against it.

In his address to the jury, Mr Justice Barlow said whoever committed the crime, "wilfully burned Mrs. Jamieson."

In the case of robbery culpable homicide is "murder whether the offender means or not that death is to ensue."

He said statements made by accused could be considered only as evidence against the person making the statement and that it was the right of the jury to bring a verdict for each of the accused

He concluded that "there is no evidence to reduce the charge of murder."

Prosecution Counsel Cecil L. Snyder, deputy attorney-general of Ontario, summing up, termed the torture-murder "the act of savages."

"It is almost unbelievable that this act of savages could be committed in this year 1944 in a Christian country," he said

Mr Snyder repeated details of three signed statements from Anthony Skrypnik, Tillonen and Schmidt

"Despite protestations by Schmidt, I feel he was the ringleader in the case," he said

Annual meeting of Oak Bay District Progressive Conservative Association will be held in St Mary's Hall on Yale Street at 8 o'clock next Monday night.

let-up, and snipers were a nuisance too, although we dealt with them pretty well.

SAW PLENTY OF SELF-PROPELLED GUNS

"I didn't see any flame-throwing tanks, but I did see plenty of self-propelled guns German S.S. (Elite Guard) units came up at dusk every night and pumped away at us for 20 minutes from a range of about 300 yards

"Our ammunition shortage began to get very serious on Friday We heard help was coming up at last, but it never came The last four days we were so pinned down by close-range fire from Germans hidden in nearby woods, and by shell and mortar bursts, that we couldn't bury the dead, either our own or the Germans The Boche by now was systematically destroying the houses where our chaps were hiding, one by one

"Packed in a tight perimeter it was positively hell—far worse than we experienced at Taranto, Italy You lost men all around you. You felt lost, in a bewildering nightmare You wondered what was happening to the relieving forces—and that was really hard to bear

"We felt blue, but we never lost hope Never."

Allsop said he received orders to evacuate across the Rhine at 3 p.m Monday, but his own trench was under such incessant machine-gun fire that he had to wait until night to pass the word among his men

"As we began the march to the river, our guns on the opposite side laid down an absolutely magnificent barrage, covering our withdrawal It was so terrific that Boche mortars which were falling all around sounded like Christmas crackers, and we didn't even notice them. Amid all that racket I felt like a fool then at my order for complete silence

"We left our positions at 8 p.m. on Monday and embarked in outboard motorboats across the Rhine at 11 p.m When we got across the men let go their emotions I guess we all said 'Well we made it!'"

Plans to Keep Germany From Regaining Power to Make War

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29 (CP).—President Roosevelt today gave a clear warning that the United States [illegible] ping in the race for postwar international trade

He instructed the Foreign Economic Administration to move with all speed, compatible with total effort for quick victory over Japan, to restore private international trade "on as full and free a basis as possible," immediately the Germans are defeated.

The instructions, contained in an eight-point programme addressed to Leo T. Crowley, FEA administrator, were made public at the President's press conference

It left more than 100 correspondents wondering what was behind the release since all the points dealt with projects the FEA has been working on and talking about.

Some saw in the release an effort to remove speculation on a re- [illegible] over the proposal of Treasury Secretary Morgenthau for complete de-industrialization of Germany.

The seventh point instructed the FEA to accelerate studies on methods of ensuring that Germany never again becomes powerful enough to make war, and "under the guidance of the State Department," to assist all other agencies participating with the United Nations in efforts to that end

From an international viewpoint the important feature was the reiteration of the country's need to get quickly into the international trade picture

There have been reports about Washington that Russia was seeking to build relations with Latin-American countries in anticipation of an early conquest of Germany which would leave Russia free to seek foreign trade, while the United States and the British Commonwealth continue what may be a long struggle with Japan.

The president ordered Mr Crowley to "relax controls over exports [illegible] patible with our continuing war objectives," referring particularly to complete defeat of Japan.

KILLED ON HIGHWAY

CORNWALL, Ont., Sept 29 (CP).—Two persons were killed and a third was seriously injured tonight when two motor cars collided on a highway two miles west of here

The dead are Leo Champagne, 38, Cornwall, driver of one of the cars, and a companion, Thelma Hambleton, 30, of nearby Mille Roches. Leonard Wheeler, St Andrews, Que., a passenger in the second car, was injured seriously.

Large Sum for Chest Needed

The sum of $29,109.02 is needed by the Community Chest-Salvation Army campaign to attain the objective of $80,000, it was reported last [illegible] is $50,890.98 [illegible] yesterday's [illegible] ections amounting to $4,721.37.

In order to receive the full amount, necessary for the continuance of dependent agencies, the drive will continue a few days longer, and those who have not been personally contacted may leave their donations at headquarters, 1006 Government Street.

Canvassers have been urged to make every effort to cover their various districts, and an appeal has been sent to business firms and the public to support the campaign.

Frank Paulding, campaign director, suggested yesterday that a community that can find $1,000,000 to bet at the races, just finished here, should be able to donate less than 10 per cent of this amount for social welfare in its midst.

Mr. Paulding pointed out that donations cover the essential functioning of many agencies. They include Child Welfare, Columbia Coast Mission, St. John Ambulance Brigade, V.O.N., Auxiliary to St. Joseph's Hospital, Fred Landsberg [illegible] Boy Scouts, and St. Vincent de Paul, Family Welfare, Oak Bay Friendly Help, Citizens' Recreation Room, John Howard Society, Women's Workroom, Canadian National Institute for the Blind, Social Service Index, Council of Social Agencies, and Salvation Army

"When people consider how their donations are divided, and how many agencies are helped by their gifts, I am convinced they will fulfil their responsibilities as citizens, in helping those less fortunate," said Mr Paulding

"C" Division (residential) headed yesterday's list with $2,224.47 "People show a great interest in the campaign," said Miss Spencer yesterday. "They seem glad to co-operate with the canvassers, and are prompt in their replies. The public has made the work pleasant for the workers," she added.

Those who donated more than $20 yesterday included Canadian Bank of Commerce, $250, Fletcher Bros. the Canadian First Army front except for strengthening of the new Canadian crossing of the Antwerp-Turnhout Canal between the two Belgian cities British forces of the Canadian army have established a solid bridgehead over the canal

While the shooting stopped at Calais Maritime and Ontario troops were fighting their way into three forts around Cap Gris Nez and overcoming pillboxes protecting four big cross-Channel guns Resistance ended at the headland with 300 German prisoners in Canadian hands The Canadians worked their way out to the tip of the cape where enemy 75-mm guns were shooting

The attack on these positions was launched at dawn It sent the Canadians against defences similar to those at Boulogne

Maritime troops and men from Ontario overcame the forts of Haringzelles about 1,000 yards inland and those of Framzelle and Floringzelle.

With the capture of Gris Nez, in which the Canadians had to make their way through thick minefields but suffered only light casualties most if not all of the big cross-Channel guns in the Pas-de-Calais area have been put out of commission Some batteries may remain east of Calais among German positions that were bombed by the RAF Thursday

The discussions outside Calais were at first reported to be over a German request for surrender terms But the Calais chief of staff declared as he met the Canadian commander that the garrison had orders direct from Hitler to hold out as long as possible He added he had to obey these orders

The armistice will delay the capture of the town and its port for 24 hours, but Western troops already have reached the outskirts on the east and south, and an Ontario force holds positions to the east

The War Today

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON

A P War Analyst

Current Allied operations on the European west front indicate virtually continuous pressure on Nazi defence lines from the Lower Rhine to the Belfort gap. Coupled with the scope of Allied bombings of German supply lines, they strongly suggest Allied preparations for multiple simultaneous power assaults

In effect the foe is being kept on the alert constantly all along the front nearly 500 miles wide General Eisenhower is taking full advantage of his superiority in numbers on the ground as well as his all but complete monopoly of the air to exert a maximum strain from end to end of the line

When he strikes in full force north, south or centre as it seems inevitable he soon will do a dent or dents that could be quickly exploited into decisive break-throughs may result Out of some 3,000,000 Allied troops in France, enough are available in all probability to maintain this over-all pressure and still mass heavy concentrations at selected points of attack

The obvious danger point demanding special Nazi troop concentrations are still in Holland covering the Arnhem-Emmerich gateway and south of Karlsruhe to the Swiss border The first Allied attempt to turn the whole Rhine position barely failed at Arnhem

Nazi sensitivity to every Allied move in the Moselle sector is marked It represents probable expectation in the minds of the German command that the United States Third Army again is marked down on Allied books for special service such as it tendered in Normandy and up the Loire Valley

That seems a justified apprehension From what has been revealed as to the positions of Allied armies, it seems clear that this army has been compacted into a relatively narrow front to the Moselle sector

The Moselle approaches to the Upper Rhine and the trans-Rhine segment of the Siegfried Line look to be easier going than those to the south at which the Seventh Army is beating

With some weeks to go before weather conditions tend to immobilize his armies, it is inconceivable that General Eisenhower is not about ready to show his hand again in full scale action

A Competent Report

Prime Minister Churchill has a way of looking facts in the face, and of answering just those questions which the public is asking at the moment. In his address to Parliament this week, Mr. Churchill gave the best answer to that question which is uppermost in most minds: when will the war with Germany be over? His reply is of one piece with the man, frank, cautious and forward-looking in equal degrees. Because the question is a real one, and because he is the man who is in best position to form an opinion, Mr. Churchill's answer will be noted and respected around the world. It was:

"I shall certainly not hazard a guess—it could be no more than a guess—as to when the end will come. Many persons of the highest technical attainments, knowledge and responsibility have good hopes that it will all be over by the end of 1944. On the other hand, no one—certainly not I—can guarantee that several months of 1945 may not be required. There is also the possibility that after organized resistance of the German state and army is completely broken, fierce warfare may be maintained in the forests and mountains of Germany by numbers of desperate men conscious of their own guilt and impending doom. It may be necessary for the Allies to declare at a certain date that the actual war against the German state has come to an end, and that a period of mopping up of bandits and war criminals has begun. No one can foresee what form exactly the death agony of Nazidom will take."

Mr. Churchill's masterly review of the last seven weeks in Europe was accomplished in his own thorough manner. He gave credit to all who had played their part in the field and his kindly references to the Canadians will be much appreciated in this land. No more thrilling period in military history could be recounted. The Prime Minister has a knack of dealing contemporaneously with history, military and otherwise. The world will re-echo his praise of our armies in the field, and of all of them, united in the same grim task. And the world will endorse his estimate of the outstanding success of those arms.

One for the Corporal

It would not have been like Mr. Churchill to speak, and to avoid some small reference to Hitler. Here, too, the Prime Minister excelled himself. What page of history, what leaflet from the accounts of today or from the years of the past would be complete without this little gem concerning "Corporal Schickelgruber"? We quote, again:

When Herr Hitler escaped his bomb on July 20 he described his survival as providential. I think from a purely military point of view we can agree with him. Certainly it would be most unfortunate if the Allies were to be deprived in the closing phases of the struggle of that form of warlike genius by which Corporal Schickelgruber has so notably contributed to our victory."

Nor was Mr. Churchill speaking without the book. The Germans have lost upwards of 1,000,000 men in Western Europe in the space of a few months. They have flung them away without result other than a progressive retreat deeper and deeper towards that wall which for them is the last one. The military situation West, South and East, is considerably brighter for the United Nations than it was late in 1918, but for Germany the comparison must be startlingly alike in many of its facets. Once again the world threatens Germany with unlimited force, and has the power to produce that force without let or hindrance until the war in the West is ended. Then will come a full and complete settlement with Japan.

Cadet Training

Five years of war have brought about the re-establishment of the cadet system of training in most Canadian schools. From the measure of our own unpreparedness when the war broke out we can estimate now more clearly what the absence of such training did to us in the years immediately before the conflict. A whole generation of youth passed through the schools without any form of organized training. No matter what will come in the postwar years, that must not be allowed to happen again.

The cadet system instituted during the war was the result of immediate needs. It has many good features, and some strange anomalies. For instance, there is no little divergence between what is done for air cadets, naval cadets and army cadets in the matter of uniforms and otherwise. In normal times, these anomalies will have to be straightened out, and a more permanent and workable system established. For certain it is that this will not be the kind of a world where cadet training can be neglected, as it was in the period between 1919 and 1939.

Entirely apart from national safety, cadet training is a fine thing for youth. It makes for alertness, physical fitness, and those qualities which make worthwhile men. It encourages respect for the uniform, and inculcates discipline so needed at that particular stage of growing up. More than that, cadet training is training in leadership, and it produces self-reliant, useful men. It would be a thousand pities if the advances made by Canada in this fashion between 1939 and 1944 are ever permitted to lapse through neglect. Cadet corps are here to stay, at least until the [illegible] it now is.

Will It Work?

The Attorney-General of British Columbia is a leader in his own profession, the law. One must regard with respect what he says in relation to courts and their jurisdiction. At the same time, uneasiness always will prevail when the normal functions of existing courts are waived in favor of special machinery. A case in point is the issue of evictions and the Rental Appeals Court, a special, traveling body.

If the Rental Appeals Court is given the right to halt evictions, ordered by the ordinary courts for due cause, will not interminable delays follow? Also what will be the position of existing courts with a special and superior body placed over their findings? They may be reluctant to deal with rental applications at all, in view of the fact that normal methods of appeal are to be waived and special machinery set up.

There remains the position of the Rental Appeals Court itself. The probability is that its docket will be a busy one. There will be calls for its services in many different places simultaneously, and circuit courts cannot function in that manner. They must have a schedule and adhere to it. Real estate agents are not alone in regarding the proposed arrangement with some alarm. Why, at this date, should the ordinary courts of the land be superseded in any particular? Will that remedy outweigh the damage that may be done? These are questions that deserve very careful consideration.

Shipping Pool

The decision of the United Nations to continue the shipping pool after the war for a period of six months, if necessary, is understandable. It will require that time at least to do all that must be done by water in the immediate postwar period. There will be the repatriation of large forces of men, the carriage of food and supplies to the war-ravaged parts of the world, inescapable commitments in regard to the armies of occupation, and much more besides.

Canada, as one signatory of the pact, may be concerned intimately in its working out. She inevitably will be one producer of food and raw materials required in the period of world reconstruction. She is likely to use more vessels in the pool than she will be able to contribute to that combination, and in that sense will be a direct beneficiary as well as a participant. But the pooling system is itself limited. The day will come when the shipping pool will be broken up, and each nation again will be on its own.

In that day Canada will need a merchant fleet comparable with her position in world trade. Plans laid now will determine how well, or how ill prepared, this country will be for that time. It would be very comforting to hear more about those plans now, because the point is one of vital importance to this nation. Merchant fleets are not built in a day. Canada was never in a better position to build and to man vessels capable of carrying her own trade. But that cannot be done upon paper. Only action now will count in the days when the need is at hand, and pressing.

Seen in Passing

There are some people who will be under no illusions as to the nature of the peace that one day must be written with Germany. They are those who have fought the Hun on land, at sea or in the air, the dispossessed populations of Europe, the French, with their long memories, the Norwegians with their gallant pride, the townspeople of Dover, Coventry, Plymouth and London, and many, many more. To that may be added the liberal-minded Teuton who knows that his homeland is held in the thrall of the blackest night in modern times. They will be for peace, not for an uneasy lull between awful wars. They will seek a peace that will last because the war-makers have been rendered harmless in fact.

If it begins to look like another Winter in the trenches, there will be some encouragement in the fact that there are few trenches and that, in so far as Germany is concerned, this will be the last one. One of the virtues of this war is that it has moved rapidly on to new ground, without the appalling trench conditions of other days.

Quiet Work

One lesson, Nature, let me learn of thee,
One lesson which in every wind is blown,
One lesson of two duties kept at one
Though the loud world proclaim their enmity—
Of toil unsevered from tranquillity!
Of labor, that in lasting fruit outgrows
Far noisier schemes, accomplished in repose,
Too great for haste, too high for rivalry!
Man's fitful uproar mingling with his toil,
Yes, while on earth a thousand discords ring,
Still do thy sleepless ministers move on,
Their glorious tasks in silence perfecting;
Still working, blaming still our vain turmoil,
Laborers that shall not fail, when man is gone.

—MATTHEW ARNOLD

I never saw a purple cow
I never hope to see one
But I can tell you anyhow
I'd rather see than be one

Using Ability

(From The Times, London)

The virtue of a democracy depends on the quality of its citizens, its efficiency on the discovery, nurture and appropriate use of their ability. Without efficiency, virtue decays into decadence. During the years of war the British peoples have given more striking and sustained proof than ever before in their history (though previous evidence has neither been lacking nor infrequent) of both their sterling quality and their capacity to rise to surprising heights of efficiency. The impetus thus given to national advancement must not be lost, nor the momentum slowed down. All concerned with education have a momentous part to play in the social and spiritual renaissance of Britain now in its opening stages. The Education Act, 1944, will offer them unprecedented opportunities; but, "legislation can do little more than prepare the way for reform." The act provides the skeleton, only the work of administrators, teachers, parents, and the public can clothe this with flesh and breathe the spirit of life into it.

Three immense, unending tasks among others lie ahead: to find reliable criteria for the early discovery of ability, to invent appropriate educational forms, institutions, and facilities for the nurture of every kind and degree of ability; and to build a broad, easy and natural bridge from the world of school to the world of adult labor, citizenship and social life.

WANTED, AN ARENA

Sir,—Does the welfare of Victoria's future citizens interest you? There can only be one answer to that question. Of course it does, as it does every public-spirited person in Victoria. Those future citizens are embodied in today's children and those children are your trust, your responsibility, and you can make them or break them. To build healthy bodies and minds, those children must have, among other things, clean, wholesome and invigorating recreation. They should not be made to keep in condition by practising hockey in the streets—yes, practising in the streets just because they have no recreation centre—no arena. Victoria needs an arena, and that arena is needed now!

Cranbrook City, whose population in 1941 was only 2,568, has now decided to build a civic centre. Although the plans are not yet definite, the estimated cost is $150,000, which sum is to be raised chiefly by donations. The service clubs are giving it their full support by raffling a house and sponsoring a Barrel Derby and, in addition, each has contributed $10,000 towards it. That's public spirit. The civic centre may include a library, skating rink, gymnasium, rooms in which various organizations—Red Cross, I.O.D.E., etc.—may meet, and of course, showers and dressing rooms. You cannot deny that Victoria does need a new sports centre. If Cranbrook can do it, why can't Victoria? It was suggested that this civic centre be erected as a war memorial to the men and women who served in the war. It is felt that this would be a more fitting tribute than the usual statue or monument.

Do we have to wait until the children of Victoria parade through the streets carrying banners which read "We Want an Arena" or until juvenile delinquency gets a firm hold on today's youth before we do something about it? Let's act now. We need everyone's support—clubs, welfare organizations, the press, schools, churches and, above all, we need the support of the citizens of Victoria.

A PROGRAMME

Sir,—I wish to submit through your columns a few suggestions for postwar improvements which would be of vast importance and of great service to the city of Victoria.

Move the Johnson Street bridge to a point on the Indian Reservation to connect with Laurel Point or vicinity, thus giving a direct rail route to the Ogden Point piers and other port facilities.

Build a breakwater from the vicinity of Menzies Street to Brotchie Ledge.

Transform the present breakwater into a pier which would accommodate the very largest of vessels.

Construct the proposed breakwater from Macaulay Point area.

Construct a sea-wall to cover all of the exposed sea front as far as Clover Point.

Build three or four enclosed, open air swimming pools along the sea front, making use of small bays for this purpose.

From the Keating Squire: "A farmer does not have to go to work in the morning. He is surrounded by it the moment he arises" . . . Broad Street Bertie remarked: "A wise wife has a good steak ready to cook when her husband returns from a hunting or fishing trip" . . . Men who serve less than 60 days in the United States Army receive $100 special discharge pay. More than 60 days' service calls for payment of $200, and more than 60 days, including foreign service, brings a grant of $300. Train fares are paid to homes from one of five dispersal centres. Disability pensions for privates range from $11.50 to $115 per month. Special grants are also made for extreme losses, such as eyesight. No state or Federal taxes are levied on soldiers' pensions. Six months after discharge a soldier relinquishes immunity against collection of back taxes, lawsuits for collection of debts, contracts and insurance premiums. The United States Servicemen's Readjustment Act provides in the case of an unemployed veteran payment of $20 per week up to a maximum of 52 weeks. Time limit for application is two years after the end of the war, or two years after discharge. The Government will guarantee 50 per cent of any loans up to $4,000 made for the purchase of a home, farm or business. Vocational training provides for payment of $50 per month subsistence . . . Barber Ben arrived at the shop yesterday with a new comb made of some plastic material. "You can bend it double, twist it like elastic, drop it in boiling water or stamp on it with hob-nailed boots," he explained. "Can you comb hair with it?" Bill, the Broad Street barber, inquired.

The time used is Pacific Standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

To find the depth of water on the sill of the Esquimalt Drydock at any time add 23.6 feet to the height of high water as above given.

The rooms of the club have been refitted and furnished in a cosy and comfortable manner.

Postwar World

War, the speaker added. In the latter case, it was evidently merely a testing ground for Germany and Italy.

Today, and after this war, three powers would be in a position to mould the future of the world, namely the United States, Great Britain and her Dominions, and the U.S.S.R.

THINKS CO-OPERATION WILL NOT CONTINUE

Dr. MacKenzie expressed an opinion that those powers would not work and plan as harmoniously in the peace as they had during the war years. All talks and papers dealing with permanent establishment of peace after this war sounded very nice, but the world would have to wait and see whether or not they materialized.

If citizens could give to the problems of the future the same type of concentrated effort and co-operation that had been given to problems of the war, then the world would surely be a more peaceful place in which to live, he concluded.

Prior to the main topic of his address, Dr. MacKenzie expressed the hope that in the near future the University of British Columbia would be added to, and extended, to include all types of faculties, and be complete enough to accommodate persons desirous of obtaining all types of higher education. The university had the highest enrollment of its history this year, he said, with a total of 2,800 attending. If the university continued to grow, help would be needed from somewhere, he added, and thought it was the joint obligation of the Federal, Provincial and municipal governments to provide that assistance. He hoped that before long there would be a first-class medical faculty at the university.

Attending the dinner were Lieutenant-Governor W. C. Woodward and Mrs. Woodward. Other guests included Hon. George B. Pearson, Col. W. Wilson, Major-General G. B. Chisholm, Flt. Lieut. W. C. Gibson, Dr. J. Dolman and representatives of several other medical associations of the province. Dr. G. G. Matthews, newly-elected president of the British Columbia Medical Association, was chairman of the dinner meeting.

streaming across the Rhine toward Holland, the first heavy westward movement of supplies spotted in weeks.

The British Second Army on the northern end of the front threw the Germans back across the Neder Rhine west of Arnhem after the enemy came across by night, a front dispatch said.

The last of three German attacks today succeeded, however, in gaining 200 yards south of the German frontier village of Wyler, five miles east of Nijmegen and the bridge.

To the south, the Second Army extended its hold along the Maas River another five miles to a length of 20 miles.

South of this new British front facing Germany the American First Army in a one-mile advance routed the enemy from The Netherlands village of Echterbosch on the German border 20 miles north of the gateway fortress of Aachen.

Well to the south other First Army forces were on the German frontier at another point after taking the Luxembourg border town of Remich. Remich is some 20 miles south of the first penetrations into Germany at Trier.

British forces secured the Nijmegen crossing on the west by clearing out the Germans between the Maas and Waal Rhine.

British and Canadian forces of the First Canadian Army coming up from the southeast advanced about three miles west of Turnhout and captured Oostbrecht across the Turnhout-Arnhem canal along which the German rearguards are protecting the northward movement of the enemy.

In the assault on Calais, the Canadians already have won a foothold across the moat ringing the historic old town and captured the Citadel on the east side.

In the battle for the southern gateway to Germany through the Belfort Gap and the Vosges passes to the north, French and American troops of the Seventh Army were pressing steadily up the slopes of the Vosges Mountains and along the northwestern approaches in the Belfort Gap.

A dozen miles northwest of Belfort, the last Germans were flushed from the forest of Mont de Vannes, but the heaviest slugging was east of Lure, 18 miles west of Belfort.

Here the Americans stood firm under an assault in strength. Then they beat forward five miles and captured the fortified village of Clairegoutte, 11 miles west of Belfort.

South put in the highly unorthodox cue bid in spades to discourage that lead by making West think that South really had one or none. Later, according to his post-mortem confession, South decided that there was a good chance that North had a singleton spade, and South ventured to the slam on that premise.

West, convinced by South's dual action of cue-bidding spades and then going to the slam that two tricks could not be taken in the spade suit, tried the surprise attack of the club queen. When declarer saw the dummy he was grateful for this temporary respite, but there still was a lot of work to be done and considerable luck still needed. There were two lines of play available. One was to cash the diamond king, then lead the ace and a low heart, hoping that the trumps would break and that the diamond queen would fall on the ace. Declarer, not liking that plan, tried the other. He overtook the diamond king with the ace and led the jack through East. The latter ducked, but declarer was not to be put off. He discarded a spade, then ruffed a diamond with the jack, cashed the heart ace and led to the heart ten. "Why didn't you take me to the grand slam?" he gloated to North.

Naval Officers to Don Wings To Serve With Canadian Navy

OTTAWA, Sept 29 (CP)—The first four Canadian naval officers to take air training for eventual service with the Canadian Navy will receive pilot's wings at the Royal Navy Fleet Air Arm School conducted by the R.C.A.F. at Collins Bay, near Kingston, Ont., October 6, it was announced tonight.

The first four are:

Lieut. V. J. Wilgress, son of L. Dana Wilgress, Canadian Ambassador to Russia

Lieut. H. J. Ritchie, Eburne, B.C.

Lieut. F. H. B. Hooper, Vancouver

Lieut. J. B. Grinnell, Vancouver

All are veterans of the anti-U-boat campaign in the Atlantic.

Scores of Canadians have trained for flying duties with the Fleet Air Arm but the present group of 31 officers in training at Collins Bay is the first to be trained with a view to eventual service in Canadian aircraft carriers.

Only four will receive wings with a group of 25 Royal Navy pilots October 6, but the others will get their wings at the rate of four every fortnight.

In addition to the 31 officers training as pilots, 22 others are training with the Royal Navy as air observers.

The flying personnel of the Canadian Navy will also have available 25 officers, now on loan to the Royal Navy. An even larger number of Canadians, who joined the Royal Navy directly as naval airmen and have since obtained their commissions, are transferring to the Canadian Navy.

Recently Canada provided sea crews for two small Royal Naval escort carriers—Nabob and Puncher. Some of the air crews were Canadians of the British Air Arm. Navy Minister Macdonald has talked of the possibility of Canada establishing its own air arm and this is the first step in that direction.

No recruiting outside the Canadian Navy is contemplated as it is intended to choose all personnel needed for air duties, both ground and air crew, from those at present serving in the Canadian Navy.

The training at Collins Bay is being given by the R.C.A.F. under the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan.

Canadian Frigate Back in Canada

AN EAST COAST CANADIAN PORT, Sept. 29 (CP)—With at least one Nazi U-boat scalp hanging from their belts, crew members of the Canadian frigate Waskesiu have returned to Canada on leave after action on the North Atlantic, the Murmansk run, the English Channel and the Bay of Biscay.

In 12 months of action at sea the score of their ship—first Canadian-built frigate and first to get a sub—stands at one confirmed U-boat kill, one assist and two possibles.

The Waskesiu, better known as "Whisky Sue" to her crew, had "good hunting," in the words of her commanding officer, Lieut.-Cmdr. James P. Fraser of Halifax.

Only 19 days after he took over the ship, last February, the Waskesiu sank a U-boat on the Atlantic, and with companion vessels picked up 19 prisoners as evidence. The captain and First Lieut. John Lincoln, of Calgary, Alta., won the D.S.C. for the victory.

Last May the Waskesiu was returning from Northern Russia with a convoy of merchant ships when a U-boat pack attacked and kept up its battle for several days. The British-Canadian naval escort fought them off and lost only one merchant ship and planes from carriers in the protecting fleet sank three of the Nazi submarines and shot down a reconnaissance plane.

The frigate arrived back in Britain in time to take part in the invasion. On D-Day it was assigned with other frigates, many of them Canadian, to "plug" the western end of the Channel against possible entry of U-boats.

New Canadian Air Ace "Born"

LONDON, Sept. 29 (CP)—A new Canadian air ace was "born" in the hours between dawn and dusk Wednesday as Flt. Lt. Don Laubman of Edmonton, downed four enemy aircraft and damaged two more to lift his three-day total to eight kills and two damaged.

The 23-year-old Spitfire pilot was flying with a group which knocked down 22 and damaged 10 enemy planes during the day to fatten its three-day score to 37 destroyed.

Top-scoring squadron was led by Sqdn. Ldr. Dean Dover of Toronto. It got 36 in that period for a new R.C.A.F. record.

R.C.A.F. Vessel Launched at Nanaimo

THE second and last 114-foot R.C.A.F. supply vessel to be built on the West Coast slid down the ways at Newcastle Island Shipbuilding Yards, Nanaimo, Thursday afternoon, sponsored by Mrs. D. M. Smith, wife of Air Commodore D. M. Smith, chief staff officer, Western Air Command.

The Kimsquit, built of all-British Columbia fir, floated out to meet her twin ship the Hesquiat (top picture), tied up at a nearby wharf and undergoing construction since her launching two months ago. Both ships are named after tribes of British Columbia Indians.

Mrs. Smith, seen in bottom picture, carried a bouquet of carnations and gladioli presented to her by E. C. Bradshaw, secretary of the yards and master of ceremonies. Following a short address by Air Commodore Smith, Flt. Lieut. H. S. McDonald, command Protestant chaplain, blessed the ship in naval tradition.

Included in the official party on the launching platform were Wing Commanders P. M. Stewart, R. J. Beaumont and W. E. Ledingham; Sqdn. Ldr. B. C. N. Burridge, F.O. A. D. Taylor, Jack Gilmour, superintendent of the yard, and Frank Hannah, president.

Victorian Serves With U.S. Navy

"The Japanese are now being killed to the last man, not dying to the last man," said a Vancouver Island commander in the United States Navy, Lambert E. Goode, interviewed here yesterday. The Nanaimo-born commander speaks with authority for he has just returned from extensive duty in the South Pacific and is in Victoria on brief leave before being assigned to another ship.

Commander Goode, who was educated at Quamichan Lake School, Duncan, and the University of California, spent three and one-half years in France during the last war with the Canadian Army as a dispatch rider. Following service overseas, he went to the United States and served with the old Pacific Mail Steamship Company until 1930. On his return to Vancouver Island he was employed with the Employment Service of Canada and joined the Canadian Army at the outbreak of war in 1939. Medically discharged he enlisted in the U.S. Navy on the technical staff.

"The South Pacific Islands," said the commander, "are like stepping stones. MacArthur said he would take them one by one until he got close enough to use big bombers with maximum efficiency. That policy was costly at first, but now due to geographic knowledge and superior tactics, it is not as costly by any means."

Commander Goode said that the Jap submarine was a thing of the past. "Radar and complete ocean control have made it our ocean and we never see them any more." The commander admitted that he had once been torpedoed but that his ship had safely returned to its base. He wears a torpedo ribbon for this action as well as five other ribbons, two for Atlantic and Pacific duty, one for being in the Canadian Army in this war and two service ribbons for the last war.

BELIEVES IN CANADA FOR CANADIANS

When asked his opinion on whether the Japanese should be allowed to remain in the Dominion, the commander replied: "Anybody who would care to walk up one of the island beaches in the Pacific two or three hours after it has been taken by the Marines would believe in Canada for Canadians. The cruel savagery of those people, their treatment of dead and wounded alike, is beyond imagination."

The commander paid warm tribute to the men who remained behind to garrison the islands after they had been taken. The target of perpetual heat, rain and particularly fungus and ringworm, with a comparatively unexciting job, they were among the war's unsung heroes.

Speaking as a private individual his opinion was that it would take at least two years to "lick the Japs." Tactics and equipment, he said, were on the side of the Allies and the fable that the Japs were supermen had been well exploded. Chief chink in the armor of the Japs, he commented, was their lack of ingenuity. Defeated over and over again on one particular type of manoeuvre they would still blindly persist in the same tactic.

Commander Goode's mother, Mrs. L. Goode, resides at 918 Burdett Avenue, Victoria, and his wife, also Island born, now lives in Vancouver.

Power Restrictions On Mainland Remain

VANCOUVER, Sept. 29 (CP)—A British Columbia Electric official said tonight he saw no chance of early easing of power restrictions because recent rains have done little to remedy the situation. "Almost continuous rain from now until November is needed," he said.

Lakes should be full by the end of November to meet the "peak supply months of December, January and February. A "cold" Winter would add to the difficulty, with freezing preventing water running into the lakes.

All B.C.E.R. supply lakes are low, with Lake Coquitlam about 30 feet below the dam top.

Air Vice-Marshal Answers Critic

VANCOUVER, Sept. 29 (CP).—Air Vice-Marshal F. V. Heakes, air officer commanding, Western Air Command, issued a prepared statement today commenting on remarks made by Flt. Lt. Frank Fredrickson in a service club address at New Westminster, B.C., on Wednesday.

Flt. Lt. Fredrickson, who expects his discharge from the Royal Canadian Air Force shortly, criticized the student training programme and charged that millions of dollars were being poured into projects in British Columbia of questionable value.

Air Vice Marshal Heakes said the R.C.A.F. was in "the fortunate position" of having too many students and when the training scheme was reduced, "it was necessary to find profitable employment, both for the sake of their own morale and for the sake of the service."

The statement added that the type of work they have been employed on has, wherever possible, been of a constructional nature and generally speaking it has been the type of work that university students in normal times would be privileged to secure during vacation periods.

"The question of building airdromes in British Columbia and the spending of millions of dollars thereon without justification, as alleged by Flt. Lt. Fredrickson, again was a matter of high policy associated with the undoubted threat of Japanese attack on the West Coast," the air marshal asserted.

The Russians and attached Romanian units under Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky also were spreading out through the Banat district of Western Romania, and Berlin said they had twice crossed the Danube River into Yugoslavia in their effort to get at the southern border of Hungary.

On the Carpathian Mountain front along the Czech-Polish border, separated from Northern Hungary only by the narrow Ruthenian territory, the Russians said their troops captured 100 localities as they steadily buried the Axis enemy back into the passes leading into the Slovakian and Ruthenian districts of Czecho-Slovakia.

South and southeast of Turka in prewar Poland the Russians seized 60 localities, including Mochnatoe, five miles from the Czech frontier.

From Europe

mans have abandoned hopes of cutting through the British wedge at Nijmegen, now widened and strengthened, and are circling round Arnhem with the intention of getting back to Germany.

There are also indications, says The Times' correspondent with the Second Army group, that the Nazis are preparing to fall back slowly to a line on the Maas, leaving garrisons behind in the Zeeland Islands to obstruct Allied occupation of the ports of Antwerp and Flushing.

The Germans say another Allied landing from the air has been made along the Nijmegen-Hertogenbosch road on the west side of the corridor. This operation is confirmed by the Allies, is important for the reason that there are 60,000 enemy first line troops in Western Holland, with 40,000 others used for coastal defence.

According to The Times' correspondent at the 21st Army Group Headquarters, Field Marshal Montgomery was himself responsible for the withdrawal of British troops from Arnhem.

The perimeter of their defence area had become too small to allow aircraft to drop supplies accurately in bad weather. Nevertheless, the stand at Arnhem, despite heavy losses, saved Nijmegen Bridge and was in its tactical results, four-fifths successful.

One of Germany's Ministers Dead

NEW YORK, Sept. 29 (AP)—Joseph Buerckel, Minister in Hitler's Government and one of the highest ranking Nazis, died today of inflammation of the lungs, the German radio announced.

Among posts he held at various times were those of civil administrator of Lorraine, head of the civil administration in Moravia, a province of dismembered Czecho-Slovakia, and Governor of the Saar, one of Germany's richest sections on her western boundaries.

Buerckel was 48. Berlin said he died at Neustadt.

The broadcast identified him as "First Gauleiter of Austria" and "one of the oldest and most loyal of Hitler's supporters."

Monterey Avenue School's Sericulture Club

—By Staff Photographer

TWO years ago a Sericulture Club was established at Monterey School, Oak Bay, by one of the teachers, Mrs. Marion Powell, at the instigation of Dr. Cecil French, who, at intervals, has been raising silkworms since his boyhood days in England. Many of the pupils shown in picture above are now successfully raising the little creatures with resultant production of gorgeous silk Other schools in the Greater Victoria area are invited to participate next season in the undertaking, whence the youngsters under present intentions will be able to derive a little pocket money It is hoped by Dr. French that this undertaking will form a prelude to a new industry on Vancouver Island, especially with a view to helping returned servicemen who may take up occupation on farms.

It has been mooted, since the introduction of such substitutes as rayon and nylon, that the days of real silk are numbered, but Dr. French has found that whenever the Vancouver Island silk is shown to young ladies the first thought engendered in their minds is the possibility of once more obtaining the real article in the form of stockings—a sort of Gallup poll

Utilization of the first silk produced will be achieved in a simple manner by making bookmarkers of ribbon framing a skein of silk with appropriate wording on the ribbon. It is anticipated that the Kiwanians a handicraft organization will undertake the make-up of these bookmarkers, which, it is believed, will arouse an appeal among tourists as a souvenir of Victoria.

After the initial steps with bookmarkers, weaving such articles as cushion covers with pictures of birds in white silk, with the well-know phrase Follow the Birds to Victoria emblazoned in gold silk, will be commenced

Increasing demand for silk will necessitate the extensive growing of mulberry trees Dr French has discussed the matter with Mr. Orchard, chief of the Provincial Forestry Department, and with Mr. H Reed, head gardener at the Provincial Buildings. The species of mulberry from which the best silk is derived is known as the White Russian, a very hardy variety. Mulberry trees from which it is intended to derive leaves for feeding silkworms should be cultivated in the weeping form and kept at an accessible height so that the leaves can be easily gathered at arm's length. There are four specimens of these trees in the sunken garden in the grounds of the Legislative Buildings Recently interviewed, Mr E O Rowebottom, deputy minister of industries, and Hon. H G T Perry have both expressed an encouraging outlook on the project, according to Dr. French.

Warns W.R.A.C. of Inflation Dangers

Miss Harriet Parsons, educational secretary, Consumer Branch, W P T B, Ottawa addressed members of the local Women's Regional Advisory Committee on Friday afternoon at the Belmont Building Mrs W E Rayfuse presided

Miss Parsons warned members of the serious danger of inflation in the transitionary period following the war. "We can't outline what will happen" said the speaker "but if the pent-up demands of five years for shopping are loosened if all this pressure comes in a focus when there is only a small quantity of demanded articles on hand we will be faced with dangers from inflation"

She urged a stabilization of supply through reasonable buying "Buy only for need, and not for extras," advised Miss Parsons, and spread your buying to avoid individual oversupply

As an example of what happens when people over-buy, Miss Parsons related that the production of children's underwear is higher than ever before yet the demand still exceeds the production since some people have bought more than the required individual amount

Miss Parsons was generous in her praise of the work of the price study panel committee, under convenership of Mrs A H C. Phipps, also the speakers committee, in charge of Mrs. Alfred Carmichael

Wren Phyllis Bell Busy as a Plotter

Wren Phyllis L. Bell, daughter of Mrs. G. I. B. Bell, 1269 St. David Street, Victoria, was accounting clerk and stenographer in C.P.R. wharf freight office before entering the navy. She enlisted in the Women's Royal Canadian Naval Service in November, 1943.

Before reporting to H.M.C.S. Bytown at Ottawa, she spent several weeks at the training establishment in Galt, Ont. At H.M.C.S. Conestoga the weeks went by quickly, drilling every day, listening to lectures and generally becoming a navy girl. After further weeks of extensive training she was prepared to begin work in earnest at Ottawa.

In one of the many offices at Naval Service Headquarters in Ottawa, Wren Bell is busy at her work as a plotter. The nucleus of all operations ashore and afloat, Naval Headquarters has a staff comprising hundreds of Wrens and naval personnel who are on the job, day and night. Records must be kept of the rapidly expanding Royal Canadian Navy which is doing such a marvellous job on the high seas in this war and it is here that the work is done.

There are many lovely spots surrounding Ottawa where Wrens go biking in their off-duty hours. There are also tennis courts, croquet, large sitting-rooms for relaxing, reading and writing letters at Wren quarters.

A Wren's life is a busy and interesting one, with many highlights at work and in her own time. There are handicraft classes at the quarters where they learn to make lovely gifts and useful articles for themselves.

Ontario Not Anti-Security States Drew

OTTAWA, Sept. 29 (CP)—Premier George Drew, of Ontario, to an address prepared for delivery tonight before the [illegible] Progressive Conservative Association, denied that his Government is preparing for a "snap" provincial election.

"We have never had any such thought," said Premier Drew. "This is no time to be playing politics either in the Dominion or Provincial field," said Mr. Drew.

Mr Drew devoted the greater part of his speech to discussing family allowances legislation.

"Only a few days ago I found The Winnipeg Free Press still deliberately misrepresenting what I had said about family allowances before I left for England," said Mr Drew, who recently returned from Britain.

"When The Winnipeg Free Press continues to speak of my opposition to family allowances, in spite of earlier correction, it does so knowing that these were my exact words: 'We are in favor of every proper step being taken to encourage large and healthy families. We believe to sound provisions for family allowances and social security.'"

Mr Drew said that while his Government believed in family allowances it was not prepared to accept an "unworkable" Family Allowances Act such as passed at the last session of Parliament. The act, passed without the consent of the provinces, invaded the provinces' constitutional rights.

Mr. Drew said the "Sifton press" was attempting to promote the impression that "I have adopted a 'position of uncompromising isolation—Ontario versus the rest of the country'."

This was far from the truth. The Premier said that in a speech on August 9 he had stated:

"We are part of a great team. If at any time we are more fortunate than some other members of that team we will be glad to help them to the very limit of our strength whenever they need our help. We have no thought that the financial resources of this province should not stand behind every legitimate measure for the assistance of any part of Canada which is in need of help. We want to take our full share in building a powerful and prosperous nation."

He asked if such statements sounded like 'Ontario versus the rest of the country?'

"Does that sound like 'uncompromising isolation' as the Sifton press describes it? The answer is clear. We all know the enormous political debt to the Liberal party which the Siftons inherited, but even with that heavy obligation there surely should be some limit to their malicious efforts to create friction between different parts of the country by statements of this kind which have not behind them even the slightest color of truth.

"We Canadians have every reason to be proud of the independence, the courage, and the integrity of our press. For that very reason the unscrupulous course followed by the Sifton press is all the more conspicuous. It is all the more reprehensible when along with their constant misrepresentation they repeatedly profess their belief in national unity."

Banister, who entertained on Thursday evening in compliment to Miss Faith Atkinson, an October bride-elect, at the home of her mother, Mrs T Atkinson, 584 Victoria Avenue. Miss Jean Maynard and Mrs Kathleen McAdam were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower held recently at the latter's home, 725 Moss Street, in honor of Miss Shirley Orkenden whose marriage is to take place in the near future. Little Sue McAdam presented the guest of honor with a bouquet. Guests present were Misses Joyce Robinson, Joyce Derry, Jean Maynard, Shirley Ockenden, Mavis Ockenden and Mrs Beryl Hulley, Mrs Kathleen McAdam, Sue McAdam and John Hulley.

Deputy Commander Not Taken by Nazis

LONDON, Sept. 29 (CP)—Lt.-Gen F. A M Browning, deputy commander of the 1st Allied Airborne Forces at Arnhem, has not been captured, it was announced officially tonight.

The announcement said the British general is quite safe and not wounded.

The Germans earlier had claimed his capture.

GOOD SCORE

LONDON, Sept 29 (CP-Reuter)—An American fighter pilot, Lieut. John Wainwright, of Marshall, Texas, in his first combat with Germans, claimed six Luftwaffe victims in 15 minutes over Arnhem Tuesday. Wainwright said he shot down two and the other four, twisting and diving in an attempt to trap him, crashed into each other and all went down.

Park Recreational Facilities Debated

Improved recreational facilities to encourage tourists to remain longer were discussed at a meeting of the tourist trade group of the Chamber of Commerce on Thursday, and it was decided to forward a number of suggestions to the City Council.

E. W. McMullen proposed that a pitch and putt golf course be laid [illegible] Beacon Hill Park, similar to the course at Stanley Park, Vancouver. Shuffle board, volleyball, tennis courts and checker squares were also mentioned for parks throughout the city.

J E. Nealy, chairman, said the hanging baskets were another worthwhile tourist attraction, and the group endorsed a motion that they be put up again next year. The City Council will also be requested to consider better lighting.

A request will be made to the publicity bureau for a more comprehensive map of the city, showing main streets and chief tourist attractions.

W. G. Wallace, Saanich Board of Trade, said extension of Marine Drive linked up with the famous Butchart Gardens was a matter of great importance to Victoria as a tourist centre.

An international drama festival will be discussed with Major L. Bullock-Webster in the near future. A committee appointed to take the matter includes Frank Paulding, Alderman J A Worthington and W G Ross.

Reassembles for Security Talks

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29 (AP)—The second half of the Dumbarton Oaks world security talks opened today with the chief Chinese delegate, Dr. Wellington Koo, declaring that China wants a peace agency that can adapt itself to changing international life.

State Secretary Hull welcomed the Chinese delegates, and Sir Alexander Cadogan, chief of the British delegation, told them there was already a "very large measure of agreement even in detail" among China, the United States and Britain on plans for an organization to keep peace. Sir Alexander announced yesterday he will return to London soon and the Earl of Halifax, British Ambassador, will take over the delegation.

Dr Koo made it clear that China has definite ideas to contribute to a security agency, in addition to those agreed upon by Britain, the United States and Russia in the first part of the peace talks.

The points he emphasized in his speech to the delegations, advisers and press were:

1. The future organization should be "universal in character" and all nations should be brought into it on a basis of sovereign equality.

2. All disputes among nations should be settled peaceably.

3. Force can only be permitted to international relations when authorized by the peace organization in order to stop or forestall a breach of peace anywhere in the world.

4. The new organization should have adequate force at its disposal for prompt action.

5. Means for peaceful change should be included in the peace agency which thus would be able to grow with international developments rather than be based upon a static world.

6. The peace agency should be able to recommend to member nations social and economic measures, conducive to world peace and play a central role in co-ordinating international welfare, education and economic groups.

The last point it is understood has been included in the final draft of the American-British-Russian agreement although at first the Russians felt the security organization should be kept separate from other international activities.

Boeing Plant at Nelson to Close

VANCOUVER, Sept 29 (CP)—Boeing Aircraft sub-assembly plant at Nelson, B C will close soon as a result of curtailment of war orders for PBY and Catalina patrol bombers, John McGrew, assistant general manager, said tonight.

Exact date of closing depends on extent of orders for spare parts, but from November 1 there will probably be a tapering off of employees.

There will be places at Boeing's Vancouver plants for a number of those now employed at Nelson providing they conform to National Selective Service regulations.

"The same thing is inevitably occurring all over the continent as Government orders for war materials and armament are curtailed or modified as the war demands change," Mr McGraw said.

The Boeing Nelson plant opened in the Civic Centre Recreation Hall late last year to begin production of belt frames. Other aircraft parts were later turned out. A staff of over 100 was employed by January of this year.

MULOCK TO REMAIN

TORONTO, Sept 29 (CP)—Sir William Mulock will remain chancellor of the University of Toronto as long as he lives, it was decided at a recent meeting of the university board of governors. The meeting had nominated Hon Vincent Massey to succeed the 101-year-old Sir William, but the Canadian High Commissioner in Great Britain refused to "run against" the present chancellor.

ARRIVE IN BRITAIN

LONDON, Sept 29 (CP)—Air Vice-Marshal K G Nairn, of the R.C.A.F., and H G Norman, financial adviser to the Commonwealth Air Training Plan, have arrived in Britain for conferences with the Air Ministry, it was made known today.

Third General in History of Army

OTTAWA, Sept. 29 (CP)—Historians today thumbed through yellow and dusty volumes in the army's archives and found that Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton is at least the fourth Canadian to attain full general's rank and the third to the history of the Canadian Army.

Gen McNaughton is the only living Canadian general.

Search was started last night when Defence Minister Ralston announced the general's retirement with the full rank. A hasty initial check through records disclosed only one other Canadian with full rank, but today army historians climbed to high shelves and found these generals:

1. Sir William Fenwick-Williams, born at Annapolis, N.S., in 1800 and appointed general in the British Army in 1868.

2. Sir Arthur Currie, born at Napperton, Ont., in 1875, and appointed general in the Canadian Army to 1918.

3. Sir William Dillon Otter, born at Toronto in 1843 and appointed general to the Canadian Army in 1930.

4. Gen. McNaughton, born at Moosomin, Sask., in 1887 and appointed full general yesterday.

They also found that Baron Byng, former Governor-General of Canada and predecessor of Sir Arthur as Commander of the Canadian Corps in the first Great War, was made a general when he took over command of the Third British Army. They conceded the possibility that other Canadians may have risen to general rank in the British Army.

B.C. Prisoners Moved To Other German Camps

Sixty-eight British Columbia men, held as prisoners of war in Germany, are affected by recent abandonment of prison camps near the Polish border, Red Cross officials state. Speedy advance of Russian armies has forced the Germans to move their war prisoners deeper into Germany.

According to advice received by Lieut.-Col C A Scott, British Columbia commissioner for the Canadian Red Cross Society, Stalag 357 at Torun (Thorn) has been closed and prisoners moved to Stalag 355, location unknown.

It is just a few weeks since Stalagluft VI at Konigsberg north of Warsaw, was closed and the 3,990 Canadian and Imperial air force prisoners moved to other camps, 3,160 being transferred to Torun. There were 68 British Columbia men at Konigsberg camp. Until further word is received, letters should be addressed to the last address given by the prisoner himself, the Red Cross prisoner of war bureau states.

With British Columbia's roll of prisoners of war increasing with every casualty list that reports this district, the Red Cross asks that relatives receiving information of son or husband held prisoner get in touch with their nearest Red Cross branch as soon as possible. In this way contact with the prisoner can be established without delay, and while next-of-kin parcels cannot be sent until the camp number is received, cables and mail can be dispatched immediately. Officials state that time is being lost by relatives who do not understand methods of communicating with prisoners of war.

Responsibility Rests With the Rat Catcher

The health committee yesterday decided to forward a recommendation to the City Council asking that body to advise A. E. Haynes, Ltd., that the responsibility of coping with the rat nuisance rests with the rat catcher.

The question arose when a letter from A. E. Haynes Ltd., offering to donate $100 to start a fund for the extermination of rats on Fort Street, contingent on other concerns making similar donations, came up for discussion at the meeting.

NAZI COUNT ARRESTED

NEW YORK, Sept 29—The B.B.C., quoting Stockholm reports, said today the German Gestapo had arrested Count Gottfried Von Bismarck-Schonhausen, former Nazi party leader and grandson of one-time "Iron Chancellor" Prince Otto von Bismarck, accusing him of participating in the July 20 plot against Hitler.

Too Many Tenants But Not Much Rent

VANCOUVER, Sept 29 (CP)—Infiltration tactics of a tenant were described by a protesting landlady in Rentals Appeal Court here today when she detailed before Judge Bruce Boyd a history which began when on a $5 deposit she rented a room to a man who claimed to be single.

The following day he moved in—with his wife and baby.

The day after that his two daughters arrived and the landlady gave in to the extent of renting the two girls a second room.

The next day a fourth child arrived and took up residence.

The crisis came on the fifth day when a grown son of the family traipsed in accompanied by a pet dog—and the pet dog's puppy.

Questioned by the bewildered landlady, the "single" man's wife announced laconically:

"That's the works."

The landlady concluded her report remarking that the tenant had paid no rent so far and had neglected to repay the $5 deposit which he had borrowed back from her a few days after his arrival.

The case was adjourned ten days.

Leading Students Receive Awards

Scholarships won by matriculation students in the June examinations held at Victoria High School were presented yesterday at a ceremony in the school auditorium.

Miss Shirley Drysdale, who obtained 92.6 per cent, received the John Newberry Hatch Memorial Scholarship. In making the presentation F. E. Winslow, manager of the Royal Trust Company, gave a brief outline of the scholarship and the life of John Newberry Hatch, the donor.

The Women's Canadian Club Scholarship, won by Douglas Grant with a mark of 90.2 per cent, was presented by Mrs A J Campbell, president of that body. Mrs Campbell congratulated the student on his achievement and stressed the need of higher education to Canada, especially as a result of the loss of young men in the war.

Miss Ellen Hart, president of the University Women's Club, presented Ian Potts, who attained 88.6 per cent in his examinations, with the Cecelia Green Memorial Scholarship awarded by Senator and Mrs R. F. Green to students of Victoria High School who have not already won a scholarship.

NEW SCHOLARSHIP IS ANNOUNCED

Mrs. F M Bucket, educational secretary of the I.O.D.E., announced the gift of a new scholarship of $50 annually to the leading student of Victoria High School, in memory of the men who have laid down their lives in the present conflict.

Kenneth Henderson, winner of the Royal Institute Scholarship with a mark of 91.6 per cent, was presented to the assembly by H. L. Smith, principal. The scholarship is awarded annually to the leading student in each educational district by the Provincial Department of Education.

The Times Shield, awarded to the school having a group of six essays adjudged the best in the province, was presented to Miss Dorothy Parfitt by Major Bullock-Webster, who accepted the honor on behalf of the school. The writers of the winning essays were Dorothy Parfitt, Thelma Brown, Maud Almond, Dorothy Marr, Robert Canova and Marion Levegne.

Victoria High students also took three awards in the radio play writing contest. The winners were Dorothy Parfitt, Donald Roberts and Patricia James.

F G Mulliner, chairman of the educational committee of the city school board, spoke on the need of higher education.

A group of 12 students sang "Open Road" and "Vagabond," under the direction of Miss Norma Douglas, of the high school staff. Miss Evelyn Frick was the accompanist.

Few Canadians in Airborne Division

LONDON, Sept 29 (CP)—A Reuters News Agency correspondent in Belgium said in a [illegible] dispatch today that 20 Canadians took part in the British "Red Devil" Airborne Division's landing around Arnhem, in Holland, but that only two Canadians got back to join the British Second Army across the Neder Rhine.

This was the first indication that there were Canadians among the gallant force of some 8,000 men who for nine days and nights held out against surrounding German forces on the north bank of the Neder Rhine. The 1,800 survivors of the division were withdrawn across the river Monday night after the remainder had been killed or captured.

The Reuters dispatch named the Canadians who survived as Lieut Philip Turner, of Peterborough, Ont., and Lieut W A Harvey, of Regina.

Favors Dominion Collecting Taxes

TRAIL, Sept. 29 (CP)—Premier Hart told a Board of Trade meeting here last night that he favors collection of income and corporation taxes by the Dominion, but he does not favor unconditional surrender of the province's right to levy such taxes.

In the first speech of a tour of the Interior, the Premier said he does not want to leave British Columbia in the hands of a bureaucracy, but he does not want to see a return to the dual income tax system.

In any agreement with the Dominion regarding finances, the province must be assured of sufficient revenue to maintain present standards, Mr. Hart continued.

Speaking of a proposed commission to investigate the cost of education, Premier Hart said that he hoped to announce the personnel of three-man commission for this purpose in the near future.

He promised the high standard of education to British Columbia would be maintained, but that a complete study of the problem of costs would be undertaken to determine how fairly the burden of taxation was distributed.

Dealing with the University of British Columbia the Premier said that the Government would give sympathetic hearing to proposals for greater assistance to the institution and particularly mentioned dormitories as one present need.

Glancing Over Sport —

By JOE DELAHUNTY

THE DAY'S ROUNDUP

Funeral services were held amidst hilarious fanfare for the New York Yankees yesterday afternoon at Sportsman's Park in St Louis. Members of the desperately fighting Brownies graciously acted as pallbearers and handled their chores during the double burial like anything but gentlemen as far as this corner was concerned, for J.D. touted the McCarthy Clan from the opening of the season to repeat their pennant victory. However, the tables were turned during the late stages of the chase and down went the Yanks, fighting every inch of the way to the last ditch. Twice yesterday the St. Louis club came through and now they are perched in a tie for first place with Detroit Tigers with only two games each remaining on the schedule, one today and the other on Sunday . . . What will happen if the clubs finish in a tie is a sure thing, the teams will play off a sudden-death game to decide which nine will go against the powerful Cardinal machine from the National League next Wednesday in the opening fixture of the world series . . . No matter which team survives the terrific strain of capturing the flag in the Bill Harridge circuit, the Cards will enter the series the favorites, for their whole regular line-up, with emphasis on the mound corps is well rested and that's a big advantage, no matter which way a person looks at it . . . Soccer bows itself on the calendar this afternoon when the Columbia Club from Nanaimo marches onto the playing pitch at the Athletic Park to try conclusions with the Victoria All-Stars in a friendly inter-city match. It should be a good game, for the local boys are in pretty fine shape after several hard workouts, while the Up-Islanders are reported ready for the whistle and, at the same time, feel confident of returning home with the decision.

FROM HERE AND THERE

The "fighting Irish" from South Bend, Indiana, known from coast to coast as the boys from Notre Dame, will make their debut today on the gridiron when they face Pittsburgh. Minus Coach Ed Leahy and the famous Angelo Bertelli, the Irish are reported to be formidable and raring to start the campaign with a victory . . . Just recently George Irvine, of Vancouver, shelled out $[illegible],000 for Shamrock, a fast-running colt that defeated the famous Teeworth twice during the racing season . . . Jimmy Ward, former member of the Montreal Maroons, is now in the East scouting around for material for the Portland Club, which he will be coaching this year . . . How's this for some optimism? The Australian Lawn Tennis Association has asked the United States to send a team to Sydney in 194[illegible] so it can defend the Davis Cup there . . . Wally "The Mauler" McIntyre, who played hockey here with the Bapcos and later with the V.M.D., is now doing his stickhandling in Seattle. Mac finished up last season with the C.P. Air Liners, the club which went to the Western Canada finals in the Allan Cup playdowns . . . Note from the sport pages of The Toronto Daily Star: "Detroit Tigers will win the American League pennant and then trim the ankles off the Cardinals in the hysterical series next month" . . . Do you know that Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis now hits the scales at 222 pounds? That means he is about 30 pounds over the weight when he was fighting in defence of his title in the United States before the Pearl Harbor "sneak play." The Brown Bomber is still in some war zone entertaining the troops with one exhibition after another.

ODDS AND ENDS

Remember when A 21-3 victory by Argonauts football squad over Toronto Varsity five years ago today cost them plenty in broken bones, cuts and wrenches? Art West, Annis Stukus, Jack Moon and Mike Barber were among those injured and Harry Sonshine, [illegible] a comeback in big-time football, after a serious injury suffered a twisted arm . . . The coolest cricket play of the whole war came at a big match at that vague locale which since the advent of the buzz-bomb, can be referred to only as "Somewhere in Southern England." An army captain was batting when one of the explosive-laden robots dived directly behind the hundreds of spectators, scattering them and forcing players to throw themselves on the ground to avoid the blast. Immediately after the explosion while debris fell and dust and smoke rose, the army captain drove the next ball into the crowd for a good six . . . Just 25 years ago a few weeks back the Foundation Company's lacrosse team captured the Mann Cup and along with it the Canadian senior championship. After winning out in this province the shipbuilders swept through the rest of the Dominion without much trouble, piling up big scores against the best that could be stacked against them all way to the final round which was played in Winnipeg. Ed "Cotton" Brynjolfson was the manager of the club, which was comprised of such well-known stars as Jake Davis, Johnny Johnson, Allie McGregor, "Sugar" McDougall, Bernie Feedham, Frank Sweeney, Cyril Baker, Angie McIntyre, Monroe, Painter, Pottinger, Clegg (captain), Mitchell and Ross. That was a grand bunch of stick-handlers. They asked for no quarter and certainly didn't give any. If the opposition got tough the Victorians just got a little tougher and laid the wood on with plenty of interest. If there wasn't half a dozen fights in those days of the open field lacrosse the crowd got up and headed for home.

Pivot Choice in $75,000 Futurity

Sixteen Scheduled to Go Postward in Rich Event at Belmont Racing Strip

NEW YORK, Sept 29 (AP).—Although Pavot is unbeaten and is the turf's ranking money-winning two-year-old, he'll not lack for rivals tomorrow when the rich Futurity is run for the 55th time over the six and one-half furlongs of Belmont Park's straightaway course.

Fifteen other juveniles were named today to oppose Walter M Jeffords' son of Case Ace, winner of seven straight races and $125,150. The race will gross in the neighborhood of $75,000, with some $51,000 of it going to the winner.

Until two weeks ago the Futurity shaped up as a championship affair, since John Marsch's unbeaten Free for All also was pointing for the race. Then it was decided to retire the Midwestern titleholder, leaving Pavot as the only undefeated horse to face Starter George Cassidy. Marsch, winner the last two years, will try to make three straight with Errard. George Woolf will ride Pavot.

Pavot's chief rivals shape up as Alexis from Henry L. Lunger's Christiana Stable, William Hall's combination of Greek Warrior and Spartan Noble, the Pentagon Stable's The Doge, a recent winner in Maryland, George D Widener's Plebiscite, Edward Lasker's Floodtown, sensation of the early season two-year-old stakes, and E. R. Bradley's Bymeabond.

One-Armed Star Sold

Pete Gray Bought By St. Louis Browns

MEMPHIS, Sept 29 (AP).—The major leagues opened the gate to a one-armed player today, with seasoned diamonders predicting there would be no regrets.

Pete Gray, sensational one-armed outfielder of the Memphis Chicks, who formerly played for Three Rivers, Que., was sold to the St Louis Browns for what was announced as "an undisclosed sum of cash and an unidentified player."

He is scheduled to join the American League club at the start of next season.

Thus after three years in professional ball, the lean, 27-year-old Pennsylvanian gets a chance to prove his contention "I can play with those fellows up there—I'd like the chance to show them."

Veteran baseball men who have seen the one-armed star in action predict he'll make the grade.

"The majors are in for a big surprise," said the Memphis manager, Doc Prothro. "They'll be amazed to find out a fellow with just a left arm can do things better than a lot of two-armed guys around. I'm sure he'll stick."

"He's definitely major league material," asserted Southern Association President Billy Evans.

He should have been in the majors this past year, commented the former Giant manager Bill Terry, now a Memphis cotton man.

Gray, who lost his right arm as a six-year-old, was voted the most valuable player in the Southern Association this year after leading Memphis to a first-half championship in split-season play.

He batted .333, smashing out five home runs, and stole 68 bases to tie a modern league record set by Hazen "Kiki" Cuyler 20 years ago.

Gray played in practically every game as was the case last year when he batted .289 with the Chicks.

He came to Memphis in 1943 from Three Rivers, Que., in the Canadian-American League, where in his first year in pro ball he led the league with a mark of .382.

Korea was once known as the hermit kingdom.

Fastball Champs Attend Banquet

Victoria Box & Paper, Vancouver Island girls' senior "B" champions, wound up a successful season last evening at Terry's when members of the club and their friends were entertained at a banquet and dance by R. L. (Bert) Challoner, manager of the Victoria Box & Paper and genial sponsor of the team.

Mr Challoner spoke briefly praising the fine team spirit shown by the club and particularly the coaching of Gordie Perkins, who received the bulk of the credit for the showing of the champions. Mr Challoner then introduced Ed Whyte, secretary of the Lower Island Fastball Association, who also mentioned the coaching of Perkins and the fight of the club as the contributing factors in their win. Mr Whyte presented Gwen Hay, team captain, with the trophy donated by Harold Rogers for the winner of the Lower Island championship. Miss Hay spoke briefly and Mr Whyte then presented Gordie Perkins with the William Jones Cup, given to the player voted to be the most valuable to his club in the men's senior "A" section. Perkins will hold the trophy for six months, as the selection committee selected Ossie Degrow, of the R.C.A.F. nine, as co-holder, being unable to decide which of the two was the more deserving.

Present at the gathering were Mr and Mrs. R. L. Challoner, Mr and Mrs. L. Glazan, Gordie Perkins, popular coach, Ed Whyte, league secretary, Pete Willis, club manager, Len Philbrook, Annette Seywright, Joe Travis, Joe Bryant, Teresa Perkins, George Sonmer and Toad Garnet. Members of the club who were able to attend were Gwen Hay, Muriel Byron, Muriel Pollin, Teddy Bradford, Sophie Watt, Dolly Elliott, Marion Rose, Helen Elliott, Dot Lehman, Helen Watson, Rita Sonmer and Vera Travis. Unable to attend were Marina Hanowski, Elsie Blair, Elsie Brackenbury and Gladys Collins (nee Gopp). Invitations were sent to members of the press, and Jimmy Tang represented The Colonist sport department in the absence of Joe Delahunty, and Miss Seywright The Times.

Willie Pep Whips Wright for Title

NEW YORK, Sept 29 (AP).—Willie Pep, of Hartford, Conn., retained his New York version of the featherweight championship tonight, jabbing his way to a 15-round victory over Albert (Chalky) Wright of Los Angeles, before a near-capacity Madison Square crowd. Pep weighed 125 1-4 and Wright 125 1-2 pounds.

The decision was unanimous as the Connecticut dancing master held command all the way with his piston-like left and his dazzling speed. Wright, from whom Pep took the championship in a 15-rounder November [illegible] 1942, tried hard for a knockout, the only way he had a chance to win—but Pep was too elusive a target.

The 22-year-old champion used his right only a few times, relying on his lightning left to keep his veteran opponent off balance. Wright landed the harder punches, and did most of the forcing of the fight, but his "Sunday punch" landed only a couple of times and Pep weathered it with a grin.

The victory was Pep's 79th in 80 fights, his only loss being a decision to Sammy Angott, former lightweight king, to whom he gave plenty of poundage.

Pep was far the stronger of the two and appeared to have more ring savvy than his foe, despite the fact Wright admits he'd donned the mitts for at least 200 fights. Time after time Pep handled Wright as if he were a baby, pushing him to the side as they came out of clinches and slapping him with his left as he moved away.

Referee Frank Fullam gave Pep 12 rounds and Wright three. Judge Frank Forbes saw 10 for Pep, three for Wright and two even, while Judge Marty Monroe gave Pep 10 and Wright five. The Associated Press card gave Pep eight, Wright five and called two even.

A crowd of 15,433 paid $66,740 to see the scrap, and Pep was fighting for half the gate against 12 1-2 per cent for Wright.

ST LOUIS, Sept 29 (AP).—The determined St Louis Browns swept into a tie with Detroit Tigers for the American League pennant today by twice conquering New York Yankees while the Tigers split a double-header with tail-end Washington.

The victories eliminated the Yankees from any mathematical pennant chance.

St Louis stumped Ernie Bonham 4-1, in the first game and beat Hank Borowy, 1-0, on two hits in the final. The Brownies squeezed in their only run in the first when Don Gutteridge doubled, went to third on a wild pitch that hit the dirt in front of the plate and scored on Mike Kreevich's grounder to first.

Nelson Potter, pitching the Browns second game, chalked up his 19th victory of the season against seven defeats.

Sensational one-hand running catches by Kreevich and Gutteridge saved the second game for the Brownies. In the eighth with two on and two out Kreevich raced backwards to the centre wall to pull down Johnny Lindell's long fly. In the ninth Gutteridge leaped high to spear Pinch-Hitter Paul Waner's liner over his shoulder with one hand.

Gangling 26-year-old Jack Kramer registered his fourth straight victory in the first game.

The Brownies tucked the game away in the eighth when George McQuinn propelled his 11th homer of the season, scoring Vern Stephens who had singled. The victory was Kramer's 17th against 13 defeats.

TIGERS DIVIDE PAIR

DETROIT, Sept 29 (AP).—The last-place Washington Senators, splitting a double-header today with the Detroit Tigers before 17,606 fans, knocked out Paul (Dizzy) Trout in four innings of their 9-2 nightcap victory after the Tigers had taken the opener, 5-2.

The even break knocked Detroit into a tie for the American League lead with St. Louis Browns who whipped New York twice at St. Louis. The pennant thus will be decided Sunday, the last day of the season.

Washington, beaten by Rufus Gentry in the opener for its 16th loss to the Tigers in 19 games this year, belted Trout for five runs and [illegible] in sending him to his 13th defeat in the afterpiece against 27 victories. Lefthander Milt Haefner, nicked for 12 hits, coasted to his 12th victory after being staked to a 5-0 lead.

The Senators banged out a dozen hits off four Tiger pitchers. Stan Spence with his 17th homer aided for three runs in the third drove in four tallies in the nightcap.

Detroit, battling to hold its edge over the Browns, made seven hits off Johnny Niggeling, good for five runs in the first game, kayoing him in the eighth inning.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, Sept. 29 (AP).—The stock market centred its buying attention mainly on specialties today and while many leaders lacked motivating bids rails enjoyed a last-minute upwards flurry and a number of pivotals improved mildly at the close.

The Associated Press 60-stock average was up .2 of a point at 54.5. Of 820 issues appearing 403 were up against 417 down or unchanged. Transfers totaled 746,550 shares compared with 638,710 the day before.

Tops for 1944 were touched by Douglas Aircraft, Texas Pacific Land Trust, General Steel Castings preferred, Excello-O and Joy Manufacturing. The last named, together with Sullivan Machinery in the curb, were helped by talk of consolidation of the two companies.

High Quality Vegetables and Blooms at Horticultural Show

Tables of lush vegetables vied with colorful blooms at the Victoria Horticultural Society Fall Show, which opened yesterday in the Crystal Garden. Massive chrysan-tastic cucumbers and onions weighing more than a pound, and blood-red rhubarb chard were among the exhibits which attracted visitors during the day.

A. E. Powell's display of vegetables was adjudged finest in back garden section, and was awarded the Landsberg Trophy. The Royal Horticultural Society medal for aggregate in the flower section was awarded to A. F. Sanders, who had 12 first and 11 second prizes.

Next highest in the flower section was Mrs. Angus McKay with 12 firsts, five seconds and one third prize. Thomas Chattell won five firsts, seven seconds and two thirds. Mrs. R. E. Winter was awarded four firsts and eight seconds.

W. G. Burch led in the vegetable section with nine firsts and four seconds, and the Fairbridge Farm School was declared runner-up with seven firsts and one second.

The judges were: Fred Saunders, head gardener at the Empress Hotel, George Robinson, well-known Elk Lake seed grower, and E. W. White, of the Department of Agriculture. With such uniformly high quality exhibits, they declared it was difficult to select winning numbers in many classes.

One of the finest non-competitive displays occupied a long table at one end of the hall centred by a basket of huge dahlias from the Empress Hotel. Flanking it were herbaceous and flowering plants from Beacon Hill Park, exhibited by courtesy of the City of Victoria. Fuchsias, and rich branches of red oak, fern and begonias made a bank of deep greens and flower colors. Another interesting grouping arranged by J. Naysmith showed begonias and white-leaved "Little Dandy" geraniums against a background of fern and coleus.

MANY VARIETIES OF CACTI ON DISPLAY

One of the most intriguing displays was that of W. Goddard. In it were countless varieties of cacti and succulents from the very tiny ones grown in bowls to the tall healthy three-year plants. Some of the plants were purposely kept in small pots to retain their dwarf stature, the grower explained, and even these had flower spikes.

Rich color was the outstanding quality of the non-competitive display of begonias arranged by Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Gurney whose greenhouses are located on Leslie Drive. A large sample box showed the many types of flowers produced by the tuberous variety. These flowers when grown from seed are seldom fixed in type and new shapes and tints are constantly found. There were some lovely pale apricot blooms of the "cristata" variety, easily identified by the centre petals forming a cross ruffled at the tips. Fibrous begonias of the Rex, Ele-included.

Victoria and District Chrysanthemum Society had a striking display of blooms in rich gold, deep reds and pink. Some of them were very tall. This society sponsors a late chrysanthemum show in aid of the Solarium during November.

The vegetable display this year was exceptional. It included 25 pounds of Sequoia potatoes grown from one root by Alex Mitchell, Legislative Buildings gardening staff, splendid stalks of celery, some weighing four pounds, and unusual snake and lemon cucumbers. The latter were exhibited by George Nunn, noted rose grower. Squash, beets, long beans, onions in almost every variety found in victory gardens were shown.

The Victoria Horticultural Society also encourages the amateur gardener with monthly competitions in both vegetable and flower classes, and interest is constantly growing, D. D. McTavish, the secretary, stated. This year the society is under the presidency of E. M. Whyte with F. E. Boulter as vice-president.

The flower show will continue today and will end with an auction of all exhibits.

Look Ahead to Tourist Trade

That British Columbians are looking forward to an increasing tourist trade in postwar years is evident in land sales being made by the Provincial Government. Almost every week orders in council include provision for cancellation of reserves on specified parcels, to permit their sale for tourist and hunting camp purposes.

Orders this week included one paving the way for Isaac H. Hubbard, of Horsefly, to purchase an island in Horsefly Lake, containing 258 acres, for tourist and hunting camp purposes.

Horsefly Lake, south of Quesnel Lake in the Cariboo is 31 miles long and half a mile to a mile wide.

A number of sales of camps and resorts by private interests have been reported recently, with Prairie buyers figuring largely in the purchases.

Set Membership Drive

Members of the Y.M.C.A. membership committee, headed by E. O. Rowebottom, met yesterday afternoon to make plans for the forthcoming annual membership drive, to open October 11 and to last for a week.

A banquet will be held in the Y.M.C.A. on October 11, and another will be held on the closing night, it was decided. Other plans in connection with the drive were outlined, and various tasks were assigned to members of the committee.

Majors of the red, white and blue divisions are S. J. D. Clack, Dr. Clifford Carl and Warren W. Martin, respectively. It is hoped that approximately 350 members will be gained through efforts of the drive. Workers in the drive will be asked to register at the Y.M.C.A. by October 4.

VICE-Admiral Frederic Wake-Walker, K.C.B., C.B.E., Third Sea Lord and Comptroller of the Royal Navy, has visited all of the most important plants manufacturing naval armament and equipment in Canada. He is pictured above as he set out with Norman Yarrow, head of the firm of shipbuilders, to inspect both No. 1 and No. 2 yards last Thursday. The admiral was much impressed with the high quality of work done on a recently completed frigate at Yarrows Ltd., which he and his party examined. Shown, left to right, are Capt. A. G. W. Stanton, construction captain, Vice-Admiral Sir Frederic Wake-Walker, Norman Yarrow, Vice-Admiral Sir Alfred Evans, K.B.E., C.B., head of the British Admiralty Technical Mission and representative in Canada, Paymaster Commander E. H. F. Bishop Was Pioneer of City

For 74 years a widely known and respected citizen of Victoria, Harry F. Bishop, 87, Victoria postmaster from 1914 to 1928, passed away on Thursday afternoon at the Royal Jubilee Hospital.

Born at Portsmouth, England, Mr. Bishop came to Victoria with his parents in 1870, three days before the Franco-Prussian War broke out, arriving at Esquimalt via the

HARRY F. BISHOP

Isthmus of Panama in September of that year. Mr. and Mrs. Bishop were widely honored by a large family gathering at their diamond wedding anniversary in 1939, celebrating 65 years of marriage.

Before he joined the Dominion Postal Service, Mr. Bishop was with the Canadian Pacific Navigation Company and later with the C.P.R., serving for a time as shoreside agent and traveling the West Coast. He was purser on the ill-fated Islander when she was wrecked in Lynn Canal with a number of gold miners aboard. The ship was reputed to have been carrying large quantities of gold at the time.

Interested in civic affairs, Mr. Bishop served as alderman, school trustee and police commissioner and after leaving his postmaster's position was for a time representative here for the Canadian Government annuity department.

For many years Mr. and Mrs. Bishop had been members of the Baptist Church congregation. They lived at 1122 Greenwood Avenue.

Besides his wife, Mr. Bishop is survived by three daughters, Mrs. H. A. Allan, Toronto Street, Mrs. F. B. McLean, at the family residence, and Mrs. Robert Evans, of Duncan; two sons, George, 445 Fraser Street, and Clarence, 1124 Greenwood Avenue; also 23 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from McCall Bros. Funeral Chapel with Rev. G. A. Reynolds officiating. Interment will be in the family plot in Ross Bay Cemetery.

Liquor Charge—Found guilty in city police court yesterday on a charge of having liquor in the Chong King Cafe, 550 Fisgard Street, Christopher Kiteley was fined $50 or in default, one month in prison.

Boat Recovered—A 10-foot green and grey clinker-built rowboat stolen Sunday from near the V.M.D. No. 1 yard was recovered yesterday by M. Wilkinson, the owner, tied up at the C.P.S. mill.

Fines Imposed—Pleading guilty in city police court yesterday to charges of failing to display their chauffeurs' badges in a conspicuous manner, Joseph D. Brown and L. C. Wakeman were each fined $10 or in default, three days imprisonment.

Traffic Cases—Four motorists were each fined $2.50 in city police court yesterday on parking counts, and another was fined $10 for failing to slow down to 15 miles an hour in a school zone. A sixth motorist paid a fine of $15 for exceeding the speed limit.

New Commissioners—Under provincial orders in council this week, Frances Bruce Hamilton Stirling and Jean Wylie Tait, of the Social Assistance Branch, Vancouver, and William Rattray Clark, assessor at North Vancouver, were appointed commissioners for taking affidavits.

Trial Date Set—Trial of James Appleby Dutcher on a charge of retaining a bicycle over the value of $25, knowing it to have been stolen, was set for next Tuesday in city police court yesterday. Accused entered a plea of not guilty and was remanded in custody. The magistrate said he would hear an application for bail.

Court of Revision—Fourteen appeals await a sitting on Monday morning at 10 o'clock in the City Council Chamber of the court of revision on the 1945 assessment roll, officials of the assessor-collector's department announced yesterday. Members of the court are Mayor Andrew McGavin, Aldermen W. H. Davies, W. L. Morgan, A. Wills and J. A. Worthington.

Car Damaged—Saanich police going to the scene of an accident at Quadra Street between Union Avenue and Reynolds Road, early yesterday morning, found a car on the sidewalk in a badly damaged condition. The occupants had left the machine, police stated, but later F.O. William Robertson advised police that he was the driver of the automobile.

Bridge Agreement—Agreement between the Province and the Dominion entered into five years ago was completed this week by a provincial order in council transferring to the Dominion Government lands forming part of the southern approach to the Old Fraser River Bridge at New Westminster, and containing almost seven acres. In the original agreement, dated October 26, 1939, the province undertook to give the Dominion a quit claim deed to lots along the government track to Liverpool junction.

Propose List of Demobilized Men

A list of demobilized men from the Victoria area should be made available to the Canadian Legion and to rehabilitation workers, and due notice should be given relatives before the men arrive, Robert Knight of the Legion told the Citizens' War Services Committee yesterday.

He cited the case of a Victorian who returned this week with both legs in casts. He could get no definite word of his arrival until he telephoned Vancouver. "This should not be," he declared. "The wife or relatives should be notified when the soldier arrives at Shaughnessy and transportation should be provided for the wife to meet her husband."

Frank Paulding, Y.M.C.A., said Victoria was important enough to have a separate roll of men made up for the information of local people. He had been unable to procure such a list. The Y.M.C.A. was offering six months free membership to all returned men, but had no way of contacting them, he said. Mr. Paulding will bring in a further report when he receives word from the National Council of the Y.M.C.A.

Discussing the work of the Welcome Wagon in giving information to servicemen, some members claimed all necessary information could be given within the services. Mr. Knight pointed out that information was not properly handled and that thousands of men came out of the services without knowing what provisions there were for their care and the care of their families. George MacDonald suggested that the citizens committee request that military authorities arrange a better information service.

Alderman J. A. Worthington commended A. H. Pease for his work on the Salvage Corps and thanked him for deciding to continue until the end of the year. "He is a very valuable man," he said.

The Salvage Corps was seriously handicapped by lack of drivers and sorters, Mr. Pease said. They needed drivers for day collecting. Once every fortnight three trucks went on night rounds but it was impractical to make all collections at night, Mr. Pease explained. Ald. Worthington urged all members of the committee to help in securing drivers for the Salvage Corps.

Reports of work done by the Salvage Corps, Hostess House, Knights of Columbus and other service organizations were read and approved at the meeting.

Doctors Deal With Surgical Matters

Speaking of "Gastroenterological Problems of the Canadian Navy," Surgeon-Commander J. W. MacLeod, R.C.N.V.R., yesterday said more men with peptic ulcers were retained in the Canadian Navy than most other armed forces. This was because the navy in 1939 consisted of a mere handful of men, and in order to increase the personnel in face of the extreme shortage of trained seamen, men of lower physical standards were accepted, he explained.

Surgeon-Commander MacLeod is consultant in medicine, Halifax, and his address opened the final session of the British Columbia Medical Association convention in the Empress Hotel.

He told of the occurrence of ulcers among navy men, the causes, treatment and the disposal of men after treatment had been applied.

Other speakers during the morning session included Major-General G. B. Chisholm, R.C.A.M.C., director-general of medical services, Ottawa, who dealt with the mental hygiene of soldiers; Dr. Albert Ross, assistant professor of surgery, McGill University, who chose as his topic "Fractures of the Surgical Neck of Humerus," and Flt. Lt. W. C. Gibson, R.C.A.F., head of the flying personnel medical section, his address was "Medical Aspects of High Altitude Flying."

Presentation Made

Alfred Gough, bookkeeper and general clerk in the engineer's office at the City Hall for the past 23 years, was presented with an engraved gold wrist watch and an illuminated address yesterday on the occasion of his retirement. Mayor Andrew McGavin made the presentation on behalf of the City Council and Mr. Gough's fellow employees. Mrs. Gough received a bouquet.

Less Gasoline Used in City

Consumption of gasoline in Victoria and district in August decreased 18,036 gallons, or 4.22 per cent compared with August last year. Vancouver and district conor 7.9 per cent, and the balance of the province increased 103,385 gallons, or 7.9 per cent, a report yesterday by the Coal and Petroleum Board showed.

British Columbia used a total of 5,876,798 gallons of gasoline in August, a gain of 306,147 gallons compared with August, 1943, and of 560,318 gallons compared with July of this year.

Retail sales were 3,900,387 gallons, up 243,607 gallons compared with July, and up 229,655 gallons compared with a year ago. Commercial consumption in August was 1,373,790 gallons, an increase of 200,117 gallons over July, but a decrease of 33,075 gallons compared with August last year.

Marine sales amounting to 602,621 gallons were 116,097 gallons more than in July, and 108,567 gallons more than a year ago.

Court of Appeal Victoria Sittings

Before proceeding with the Logan murder appeal yesterday morning the court granted a motion brought on behalf of the defendant in Rex vs. Tweedie, by R. D. Harvey to withdraw notice of appeal entered therein.

Mr. Harvey submitted the defendant was supposed to have been tried under Part 16 of the Criminal Code while in fact the conviction and warrant of committal indicated he had been dealt with under Part 15, and in consequence thereof the defendant's recourse would be by way of certiari and he therefore found it necessary to withdraw the notice of appeal rather than having same dismissed as otherwise the defendant would be barred his remedy of certiari.

Robert A. Wootton appeared for the Crown.

Counsel concluded their arguments in Rex vs. Logan and the Court adjourned until Monday.

Thomas P. Hurley continued his argument on behalf of the defendant for the greater part of the day challenging the sentence and conviction on two main grounds of insanity and accident.

He submitted that the verdict as rendered by the jury, "guilty of murder, with a strong recommendation for mercy owing to temporary insanity," was in fact a verdict of "not guilty by reason of insanity," and urged the court to substitute this proper verdict. He further emphasized the present verdict was entirely ambiguous and should not have been accepted.

As to the question of accident, counsel stressed evidence of the defendant given at the trial of the deceased interfering with him when he was in the act of cutting his own throat and of a scuffle ensuing for possession of the knife, and he urged that the wounds from which she died may have been then received, and argued that it was the duty of the trial judge to mention such evidence to the jury.

C. M. O'Brian, K.C., for the Crown argued that the trial judge's charge to the jury was fair, but did state to the court that if there was evidence which would lead the court to believe the defendant was insane at the time, then a verdict of "not guilty by reason of insanity" should properly be entered.

The court reserved judgment.

Real Estate Men Join Association

First item dealt with at the luncheon meeting of the Real Estate Board in Spencer's dining-room yesterday was the question of entry into the Canadian Association of Real Estate Boards, of which a notice of motion was passed at the last meeting. The motion to join the national association was unanimously adopted by board members.

R. H. Shanks, president of the local board, signified his approval of the move. "When the new association speaks," he said, "it will do so for the whole of Canada, not just as an isolated group." The motion was moved by W. O. Burton.

Members of the board held a lengthy discussion regarding the matter of the proposed scenic highway from Victoria around the Saanich Peninsula. It was considered that the drive, approximately 55 miles, following the waterfront for all but 15 miles, would be a great tourist attraction if properly developed. A resolution was passed to have a plan drawn up setting out a definite highway, following which [illegible] and suggestions might be placed before municipalities and the Government.

The B.C. Landlord and Tenants Act next came up for discussion and members of the board decided to endorse a recent stand taken by the Vancouver board in which members urged that no change be made in the act at present. Reason for this decision was that many of the members were considerably concerned over the reported suggestion that a regulation might be passed that houses for sale should only be kept vacant for three months. This they felt would incline a purchaser to defer his offer until the period had almost expired when he would put in a figure far short of the true value.

5 IN MEMORIAM

FERRIS, SARAH—In loving memory of my dear wife and mother who passed away September 30, 1942. Fondly remembered by her husband and family.

Loving mother, so gentle and kind,
Wonderful memories left behind.

Long days and nights she bore her pain,
To wait for cure, but all in vain;
Till God, Who knew what was best,
Took her home and gave her rest.

Gone from us, dear mother,
Leaving memories that death can never take away,
Memories that will always linger
While upon this earth we stay.

Soviet Progress Made in Wartime

Admitting that Russian physicians and surgeons had made many great and significant strides in the field of medicine and surgery during the past several years, Dr. [illegible] McPhedran, president of the Canadian Medical Association, said here yesterday he doubted whether such progress would continue in peacetime.

Russia was more or less forced to adopt state medicine, he added, as she had been preparing for war ever since 1918. Much had to be accomplished in a short period of time.

Asked about some of the outstanding medical progress made by the Russians during the war, the distinguished doctor said very little official information had been made public from that country.

Although medical progress had been completely disrupted in many countries of the world, Dr. McPhedran continued, Canada had made many significant strides during the past five years. The advancement of nutrition education had been one of the outstanding features of the medical programme, he said. The discovery of sulpha drugs and penicillin had greatly assisted medical circles, and had made possible operations which before would have been undertaken only with a great deal of potential danger. Operations on the lungs and stomach were among those made safe with the use of the newly discovered drugs.

Outlining numerous diseases which had been brought under complete control during the past 50 years, he said the number of tuberculosis cases had decreased 50 per cent during that time.

Speaking on rehabilitation measures which would be necessary after the war, Dr. McPhedran remarked it was going to take a long time to reaccustom returning men to normal civilian life.

Duncan Paper Wants Action

No statement was available from Pacific Command last night on an editorial in The Cowichan Leader, Duncan, regarding the recent melee in that city involving servicemen in which a civilian, A. deBock, 62, suffered a broken jaw. Major-General G. R. Pearkes, V.C., was not available for comment.

It is understood Pacific Command officers have before them a Provost Corps report on the incident, in which it is alleged home defence and general servicemen were involved, and that a statement may be issued shortly.

The Cowichan Leader in its editorial says: "The week has produced no further developments in the affair . . ." and adds "The Provincial Police have found no evidence on which to lay a charge, and the military authorities have made no statement."

It suggests "it would seem that there is an official desire to allow the affair to quiet down for fear of engendering trouble between active service and home defence men. It appears, too, that there is much general information on the case being circulated but that all persons with knowledge of the matter have not been willing or required to testify.

"We are forced to the conclusion that the military authorities are more interested in covering up the matter than seeing to it that justice is done, and that the civil police are acquiescing or have been barred from the full information they require.

"Irrespective of what may have caused the trouble, the affair calls loudly for proper action. The mayor, city council and Canadian Legion should demand that the case be not allowed to go by default."

Sends Tribute to Men in Services

MONTREAL, Sept 29—Tribute to the personnel of Canadian Pacific ships to company employees in the army, navy and air force and to Canadian Pacific people serving on the company staffs in Great Britain and Northern Ireland who have displayed equal courage in fulfilling their duties to the company's service during air attacks was paid today by D. C. Coleman, chairman and president of the company, in a cable to F. W. Mottley, acting European manager. Mr. Coleman's cable follows:

"The personnel of our steamship fleets and our employees who serve in the army, navy and air force, have displayed great courage in the discharge of their duty as combatants in face of the enemy and we are proud that our staffs in Great Britain and Northern Ireland have displayed equal courage in fulfilling their duties in the company's service during air attacks. Please convey to all members of your staff my appreciation of their devotion to the company's interests under trying wartime conditions and request Captain Stuart and Mr. Whiddett to convey a similar message to their staffs."

At the Theatres

York Theatre Will Show "Minstrel Man"

Lee "Lasses" White, technical adviser on PRC's "Minstrel Man," the Benny Fields vehicle, has a history of 30 years of minstrelsy. White [illegible] minstrel man and his adventures into the Order of Burnt Cork are numerous.

White has traveled under every sort of transportation difficulty. He has appeared in tent shows when the tents were whisked away by tornadoes; he has appeared in shows which did not meet with the approval of the local public and risked "a fate worse than death" when the audiences did not approve.

White, because of his intimate knowledge of minstrel shows, was the technical adviser on the screen play of "Minstrel Man," which is coming to the York Theatre next Thursday.

ATLAS THEATRE The grandfather of War Hero Corydon M. Wassell, is portrayed on the screen by Gary Cooper in a Cecil B. DeMille Technicolor production for Paramount entitled "The Story of Dr. Wassell," which ends tonight at the Atlas Theatre.

YORK THEATRE Walt Disney's combination full-length "live action" and animation picture, "The Reluctant Dragon," is an outgrowth of a universally popular interest in the workings of the Disney plant. Walt himself, Robert Benchley, Frances Gifford and many of the artists who actually draw the famed Disney cartoons appear in the production which ends tonight at the York Theatre.

RIO THEATRE Some of New York's most famous electric signs, now blacked out for the duration, can still be enjoyed by "armchair travelers." The signs form the background for several scenes in "Dr. Broadway," the Paramount romantic comedy-drama which ends tonight at the Rio Theatre. Macdonald Carey and Jean Phillips top the featured cast.

PLAZA THEATRE It was not by mere chance that Frank Puglia was cast as Susanne Foster's voice teacher in Universal's "This Is the Life," which ends tonight at the Plaza Theatre, with Miss Foster, Donald O'Connor and Peggy Ryan as its stars. In the story of "This Is the Life," Puglia successfully coaches the 19-year-old Susanna to a sensational concert debut in New York City.

DOMINION THEATRE Mark Twain's heart-touching tale, "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer," is currently at the Dominion Theatre. Tommy Kelly, Jackie Moran, May Robson, Walter Brennan and Victor Jory head the cast of "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer." The production is considered Mark Twain's greatest story, and the film is entirely in Technicolor.

CADET THEATRE Makin Island in mid-Pacific is the locale for the Marine Raiders' first attack on Japanese-held territory as shown in Universal's action-packed drama, "Gung Ho," which ends its engagement tonight at the Cadet Theatre. Randolph Scott plays the lead in the picture and is given generous support by the cast consisting of Grace McDonald, J. Carrol Naish, Alan Curtis, Noah Beery, Jr. and others.

CAPITOL THEATRE During the filming of "Once Upon a Time," Columbia's whimsical hit currently starring Cary Grant and featuring Janet Blair at the Capitol Theatre, Jimmie Gleason labeled his chair on the set with a sign which read "Not Over 160 Lbs." The only one in the cast whom it kept away was Cary Grant.

Awarded D.S.O.

LIEUT.-COL. R. S. E. WATERMAN

Formerly of the P.P.C.L.I. and now commanding the West Nova Scotia Regiment in Italy, who has been awarded the Distinguished Service Order. His wife and two young sons reside at "Briarholm," Metchosin.

Commending Col. Waterman on his award, a brother officer wrote that "the manner in which you fought with the regiment is a fitting tribute to your reputation and ability as a soldier in the true sense of the word."

Continuing, he said: "Not everyone realizes that due to different circumstances it is not given, in this war, the opportunity for commanders to perform deeds of personal gallantry. But that they are decorated for the efficiency and conduct in battle of troops under their command . . . You were their guide and more important, their inspiration, without which little is accomplished."

A regular army officer, Col. Waterman served for 15 years with the Princess Pats, and went overseas with the 1st Division in 1939. Coming back later for some time to direct training depots in Winnipeg, he returned again to England in March, 1942, and was transferred to the West Nova Scotia Regiment. A few days before his unit left for Sicily he gained his majority. He was promoted lieutenant-colonel early this year.

Colonel Waterman has been in the thick of the fighting ever since the 1st Division invaded Sicily, during which campaign he was wounded. Recovering, he has continued to serve with distinction throughout the difficult Italian campaign still in progress.

NEWARK, N.J., Sept 29 (AP)—Newark's Bears evened their final play-off series with Baltimore Orioles here tonight at one game apiece by hanging up a 4-0 triumph behind five-hit pitching by Elmer Singleton.

Singleton, allowing only two singles up to the eighth, fanned seven and walked five. He stranded ten Orioles to achieve his shutout.

The Bears raked "Red" Embree for ten hits and it was a triple with two out in the fourth by Singleton which knocked across two of the runs.

First Aid Awards

Presentation of first aid certificates was the focal point for an enthusiastic meeting on Thursday night of View Royal No. 1 Civil Defence District, Craigflower, the meeting being held at the View Royal Hall.

The ceremony was followed by motion pictures, a dance and refreshments. Mrs. George Ingledew was general convener. A. M. MacKay, divisional warden for No. 2 district, presided.

Inspector A. H. Bishop, controller for the city of Victoria, presented the awards, pointing to the value the knowledge of first aid would always be to those who received them. He urged also that the volunteer fire department be continued. It had already saved a considerable amount of property and its services would be as valuable in the future as in the past.

Receiving the awards were Mrs. William Rankin, Mrs. Charles Richards, Mrs. George Ingledew and Mrs. Earl Thompson, medallions; Percy Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Albany, vouchers; Buster Warren and Frederick Bell, certificates.
